

CARRIED OVER RAPIDS

Two Stevens Point Boys Go Through Shaurette Slide in a Launch and Escape Unharmed.

Two young men employed at Hotel Sellers, Robt. Lawrence and Felix Ceplina, had a not soon to be forgotten experience last Wednesday afternoon. They secured a launch owned by the hotel and started north on the Wisconsin river. When a short distance above the bridge their rudder refused to work, one of the fastenings becoming loose. After swinging around a couple of times, the boat finally headed down stream, the boys being at the mercy of the swift current, which carried them rapidly toward the Jackson Milling Co. dam. Realizing their danger, they shouted for help, and Alf Anderson and Lloyd Garthwaite, who were in the former's boathouse, north of the dam, started to the rescue, but were too late, the Sellers craft passing over and down the slide before they could be reached. Ceplina, who is a good swimmer, jumped into the water at the stern of the boat about thirty feet above the dam, and guided the boat so that it went over bow first, in which he displayed remarkably good judgment, keeping the launch from destruction in the rapids below and saving the life of his companion, who is unable to swim. Ceplina, however, lost his hold on the boat as it was being carried through the swift rapids, and for a time disappeared beneath the waves, but when he appeared and finally climbed aboard, it is needless to say that his companion was fully as much relieved as himself.

The launch was carried down about one-half a mile, about opposite the center of Bliss island, where Jay Kelsey and Louis Bergholte were fishing, and rowing out in their boat, towed them to shore.

Married at Marshfield.

Anton Flugaur, Jr., of this city, and Miss Ida Wettstein of Marshfield, were married at St. John's Catholic church at the home city of the bride, last Wednesday, Father Folz officiating, and are now at home at the residence of the groom's father, 417 Prairie street. Anton is employed as a carsmith in the local yard and is a first-class young man. He has evidently been fortunate in winning a most excellent life partner, and both receive the well wishes of friends here and elsewhere.

Positions Wanted.

Many prospective students make earnest inquiry in their letters concerning the opportunities afforded in Stevens Point to secure work on Saturdays, and after school hours during the week, whereby worthy young men and women may earn the means to pay their expenses in whole or part. It will be to the mutual advantage of the Normal school and the community to have on file in the office of the school a list of such opportunities. Cordial co-operation is invited. Address President John F. Sims.

An Opportunity.

If you are interested in reading what W. J. Bryan will have to say from now until after election, you can get The Commoner sent to your address by remitting 25 cents to The Gazette. Or we will send you The Gazette for one year and The Commoner to Nov. 15th upon receipt of $2.00 in advance.

COLLISION ON CORNER

Paper Mill Employee and Automobile Owner Have a Sudden and Undesirable Meeting.

Earl Sweet, an employee at the Wisconsin River Paper & Pulp Co. mill, and who makes his home at the Myers House, collided with the W. H. Coddington automobile at about 6 o'clock last Thursday evening and will not soon forget his brief experience in a collision. Mr. Sweet was riding north on Water street on his bicycle, returning from work, and Mr. Coddington of Plover and John Lukaszevich of this city were driving west on Clark street. All were traveling at a moderate rate, but reached the vicinity of the crossing at about the same time. Sweet swerved to the left to get out of the way, and Mr. Coddington instantly put on the brakes, stopping within a few feet, but not until Sweet had been struck, he being thrown upon his back on the left mud guard of the auto and thence to the ground, his feet becoming tangled in his wheel. Both wheels of the auto passed over his lower limbs before Mr. Coddington could stop. The young man was picked up and placed in the car, several who were in the vicinity coming to the assistance of Mr. Coddington. After the wounds, which consisted of a cut across his forehead and a number of bruises on his face body and limbs, had been cared for by a physician, he was taken to his hotel and has now about fully recovered.

Oxfords at Cost.

Ringness wants to make room for his fall and winter stock of shoes and is therefore selling his Oxfords at or below cost. Call and judge for yourselves.

Bids Wanted.

Sealed bids for the construction of about five and one-half miles of ditches in the Portage County Drainage District will be received until September 5, 1912, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Plans and specifications will be furnished upon application to the Secretary, Plainfield, Wis., to whom all bids must be addressed. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved by the commissioners.

Bids will be opened at the office of the commissioners, in the law offices of Fisher, Hanna & Cashin, Stevens Point, Wis., in the afternoon of September 5, 1912.

D. H. Pratt, Secretary.
Plainfield, Wis.

Wilson's Picture.

The publishers of Puck, the National Cartoon Weekly, have just issued a lifelike portrait in colors, size 14x21 inches, of the Hon. Woodrow Wilson, Democratic nominee for the presidency. This portrait will be securely wrapped and mailed to any address on receipt of ten cents by the publishers of Puck, 295 Lafayette street, New York.

There is a good deal of intelligence on the bench, a judge having decided that a man has no right to cross his legs in a car and muddy other people's clothes.

Concerning universal criticism of rats who desert a sinking ship, it seems that ordinary justice to the rats will give them credit for knowing when the ship is sinking.

Local Notes.

Use IVORY Wall Plaster. tf
Carl J. Glennon spent Sunday with friends at Green Bay.
T. Olsen, phone 54, is prepared to deliver green mill wood.
O. A. Assmann spent Saturday and Sunday at the Waupaca lakes.
Mrs. G. S. Gunderson returned from a visit at her old home, Ironwood, Mich., last Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Daverin and children are visiting in Chicago, where they will spend several weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mosher have rented a cottage at the Waupaca lakes and are spending a week or ten days there.
Miss Thada and Marjorie Boston left for Rhinelander the last of the week to visit at the home of their uncle, Chas. Ball.
Miss Myrtle Rogers is spending a few days camping with a party of Green Bay friends at one of the resorts on the bay.
Miss Irene Whitney of Minneapolis was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Rogers, on Smith street, a part of last week.
Misses Chloe and Edith Spray of Whitewater, who had been visiting among friends in the city, left for home last Thursday.
Mrs. H. W. Jeffers and little son came up from Oshkosh last week to visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Maine.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neumann of Bartlesville, Okla., were presented with a baby boy last Thursday and Paul announces that "all's well."

Mrs. A. J. Kujawa and children came over from Rudolph last week to visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Spalenka, on Normal avenue.
Miss Bertha Lochner of Milwaukee has been visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Adolph Roesick, and other relatives and friends in the city for the past few days.

Just received car choice Gluten feed. Protein 20 per cent to 25 per cent. The best feed on the market to produce milk. Retail for $1.55 per hundred weight. The Pagel Milling Co. w2

Beware of imitators. If you want to order wood or coal, ring up telephone 54; when ordering wood or coal from a teamster on the street be sure that Olsen's name is on the wagon box.

Andy King spent Friday at Minneapolis, accompanying his niece, Miss Nellie Jones, of Albert Lea, Minn., who had been spending the summer here, as far as that city on her way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Cooper of Eveleth, Minn., are visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cooper, on Water street. Milo has been bookkeeper for a mining company at Eveleth for several years.

Len Starks of Chicago and B. C. Johanas of Wautoma spent last Thursday evening in the city, being on their way to Mellen and other points in Ashland county to look over the potato crop prospects. Mr. Starks will probably build several warehouses in that section.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Parker of Pasadena, Cal., were guests of President and Mrs. John F. Sims, the last of the week, leaving for Madison Saturday morning to visit there before returning to the west. Mr. Parker was president of the River Falls Normal for a number of years and also held number of other important positions before moving to California.

Mrs. W. S. Powell was a visitor to Green Bay last Sunday.

G. A. Gullikson was a visitor to Green Bay the last of the week.

Miss Grace Cauley spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Montello.

Mrs. J. V. Collins and daughter, Miss Helen, are visiting with Mrs. W. J. Walters in Minneapolis.

E. I. Ferriss of Omro spent Sunday in the city visiting his sisters, Mrs. Emmons Burr and Miss Anna Ferriss.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Brooks and little daughter returned from a visit with relatives at Chippewa Falls, last Saturday.

Mrs. Anna Hanson, daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. L. R. Anderson and Miss Helga Anderson, are visiting with friends at Racine.

Mrs. Geo. E. Oster returned from Montana, the last of the week, where she spent a part of the summer with her husband on their homestead.

Miss Stella Courtright is enjoying an extended vacation, leaving for Amherst last Saturday and will go from there to Oshkosh and other places.

Mrs. Chas. Conlisk left the last of the week in company with Mr. and Mrs. C. V. McMillan of Fond du Lac on an automobile trip to Northern Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Eagleburger returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Margraf in Chicago on Saturday, the former having been there a few days and the latter for several weeks.

P. W. Holte returned from a business trip to Chicago, Watertown and other points below, the last of the week, where he disposed of 22,000 acres of land located in Northern Michigan, taking in part exchange business and residence property. He represented the Gullikson-Holte Co.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING

William J. Herman and Miss Elizabeth Hoerter United in Marriage Last Wednesday Evening.

There was a pretty wedding at the home of Mrs. Christine Hoerter, 716 Water street, last Wednesday evening, at which time her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, became the bride of Wm. J. Herman. Rev. G. D. Fleer, pastor of the Friedens church, officiated, and the attendants were Wm. F. Hoerter and Fred Herman, brother of the bride and groom respectively, and the Misses Martha Haase and Mary Holdreger. The rooms were handsomely decorated for the occasion and the bride looked charming in a gown of white messaline and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Florence Rosenkranz played a wedding march as the young couple entered the parlor and the ceremony was followed by a four course dinner, which was served by the Misses Anna Lutz, Anna Haase and Emma Lutz, the latter of Amherst Junction. Between sixty and seventy relatives and friends enjoyed the feast and the reception that followed. Mr. and Mrs. Herman leaving that night for a wedding trip to Milwaukee and Chicago, remaining a few days and will be at home after Sept. 1st at the home of the bride's mother.

The groom is a son of Mrs. Margaret Herman of the town of Plover and for some time has been employed in the Whiting-Plover Paper Co. plant. The bride recently resigned a position with the Racine Underwear Mills, and both are estimable young people, having many friends who join with The Gazette in wishing them long happiness and plenty.

KIRK'S FLAKE SOAP

GIVES BEST RESULTS

Woolen Blankets

Delicate Laces

All Laundry

Use!

WHITE SOAP

EQUALLY EFFECTIVE

WITH

Warm Water

Cold Water

Soft Water

Hard Water

For Every Household Purpose and Every Kind of Water!

Grocers everywhere are selling KIRK'S FLAKE (White) rapidly because it is a repeater and gives absolute satisfaction. Never a cake returned. Everybody is delighted.

There is no soap sold that has given such universal satisfaction throughout the United States as

KIRK'S FLAKE SOAP

Think of it—a fine, white, aromatic, sweet, vegetable, sanitary soap for all laundry and household purposes and costing no more than the ordinary kinds. Every atom is pure soap, no grease, chemicals or rosin used in its manufacture. If you haven't tried it yet be sure and get a cake today. Your grocer recommends it.

Save Flake Wrappers for Valuable Premiums

KIRK

Over 70 Years of Scientific Soap Making.

Use JAP ROSE (Transparent) Soap for the Toilet and Bath

EVERY ATOM CLEANSSES

EXPLOSION IN A GARAGE

Stevens Pointer Has Costly Experience on a Trip to La Crosse—Car is Badly Damaged.

A. M. Lickteig, the district manager for the Prudential Insurance Co., with Arthur Beijer as chauffeur, and accompanied by Mrs. Lickteig and Mrs. C. A. Lane and little daughter, left last Thursday morning for La Crosse in the first named gentleman's car. The long trip was made in good time, they arriving there in the evening and the car was placed in a garage for the night. Later in the evening while another car was being supplied with gasoline, a young fellow drove in with his car, which he placed near the one that was being replenished, and pulling a cigarette from his pocket, proceeded to light the same. The air was so thoroughly filled with gas that an explosion followed and everybody made a scramble for the doors. The entire interior was instantly filled with smoke and flame, and before the fire could be extinguished four autos were damaged almost beyond repair and three others were injured, the top on Mr. Lickteig's car being ruined, while the paint and other parts were scorched from the heat. He feels thankful that it was not worse.

LAND FOR SALE—Six and one-half acres of land on Jordan road, near new city hospital, will be sold at a bargain. Enquire of or address Aug. Stoltz, Stevens Point, route 6. w3

Elect Officers and Directors.

It is expected that the new State bank of Bancroft will open for business on or about Sept. 1st, and as soon thereafter as possible will move into the new brick bank building to be erected at once. At a meeting of stockholders held on Friday last officers and directors were chosen:

President—S. W. Manley.
Vice Pres.—Buchanan Johnson.
Cashier—Harold Ostrum.
Directors—Chas. Walker, Buchanan Johnson, R. I. Roseberry, S. W. Manley, Harold Ostrum.

POLONIA.

Jos. Weiland was a visitor to La Crosse last week.

George Sommers is now employed by the Independent Creamery Co.

The dance at Omernik's hall last week was fairly well attended.

Anton Kubisiak of Amherst Junction was a caller here one day last week.

Mrs. Frances Kovalevski of Wild Rose has been visiting relatives here for a few days.

Charles Kozyczkowski has been on the sick list for the past month and there is no hope for his recovery.

Prof. O. E. Wood of Stevens Point was here last week to do some advertising for the Stevens Point business college.

J. H. Walechka of Antigo and John Petarski of Hatley were business callers here for a few days last week, coming in a Case automobile owned by Mr. Walechka.

Announcement Extraordinary!

Two-piece or Long Pants School Suits for Boys

AT FROM

$7.00 to $10.00

Now is the time to purchase your son's clothing for school wear and we offer you an ## Extraordinary Opportunity.

There is not an old suit in the lot of over 500. They are all made up in the Latest Styles and are all wool and serges.

DON'T DELAY. CALL AND LOOK THEM OVER.

THE CONTINENTAL CLOTHING STORE

MAKE YOUR SUCCESS an assurance by taking a course at
The Stevens Point BUSINESS COLLEGE
FALL TERM begins SEPT. 2

Don't put off writing for information one minute, but do so at once to

O. E. WOOD, Prop.
Stevens Point, Wis.

Dr. H. S. Card, M. D.
—grower of—
GINSENG and GOLDEN SEAL PLANTS
Seed for sale at all times. Finest of American Ginseng, northern grown stock. Main gardens,
1100 block, Ellis Street
STEVENS POINT, WISCONSIN

How He Stands.
Judge John C. Karel, Democratic candidate for governor, is making his campaign on a platform which calls for the immediate and unconditional repeal of the income tax law. How the judge came to become interested in the subject of income taxation is interesting. Judge Karel, as is well known, is judge of the county court in Milwaukee county, the court which has charge of probate matters. Every day in this court the sad story of the widow and the orphan comes up and the judge is confronted with many touching life stories. When the income tax agitation began in Wisconsin some years ago Judge Karel was at once interested. He saw clearly that the people who daily pass through the court over which he presides would probably be vitally affected.

Then he began to look into the subject. He saw that the widow in moderate circumstances who owned a little home and had a small income for the support of herself and children would be certain to come under the law either directly or indirectly. If she had enough income to be taxed, she paid a direct tax. If she had less than the prescribed amount, she would come under the ultimate consumer class and so pay an indirect tax. That settled Judge Karel's attitude toward the income tax. He began to speak and write against the new law a year ago and his protest, at first modestly put forth, has aroused the great state of Wisconsin as it has not been aroused in twenty years. Judge Karel stands for the repeal of the income tax law and his campaign throughout the state has been like a tour of triumph.

City Lots For Sale.
Bids for the purchase of the residence property owned by the city, corner of Meadow and Washington streets, will be received to Aug. 31st, 1912.
Address City Comptroller, Stevens Point, Wis. w2

Help Wanted!
Laborers, Handymen, Carpenters, Pile Drivers and River Men. For six months work on dam at Rothschild, Wis.

Should Blush With Shame.
In the light of the President's veto of the wool bill, and for which action he should blush with shame, which veto gives the woolen trust a continuance of its privilege to plunder the consumer while at the same time paying its workers starvation wages, a page from the hearings in connection with the Lawrence strike inquiry makes interesting reading. The witness is Miss Sanger, a trained nurse: (Page 226, Hearings on House Resolution 409 and 433.)
Mr. Pou: Miss Sanger, were you instrumental in taking a number of the strikers' children away from Lawrence during the strike?
Miss Sanger: Yes, sir.
Mr. Pou: Did you talk with those children about their manner of living?
Miss Sanger: Yes, sir. I found that the children—there were 119 of them in my party—seldom ate meat, and their physical condition was the most horrible I have ever seen. In the first place four of the smallest children had chicken pox, and they had not received any medical attention.
They were walking about among the other children apparently without noticing the chicken pox or diphtheria; one child had diphtheria. Of the 119 children only four of them had underwear, and it was bitterly cold. We had to run all the way from the station to Labor Temple after we got to New York to keep from freezing.
Mr. Foster: You say only four had underclothing; what was the condition of their outer clothing?
Miss Sanger: It was simply in rags.
Their coats were worn to shreds.
Mr. Foster: Were the children pale and thin?
Miss Sanger: Yes, sir. And I want to say that when they had supper it would have brought tears to your eyes to see them grab for the meat with their bare hands.
Mr. Foster: Did any of them have on woolen clothing of any sort?
Miss Sanger: No, sir.
Mr. Foster: And yet they all worked in woolen mills?
Miss Sanger: Yes, sir.
In his veto message Mr. Taft has much to say about the "woolen industry," and "foreign labor." He makes no mention of these poor victims of the woolen trust's greed.

Maddening Rapid Transit.
The accommodation trains of Germany seldom fail to provoke the wrath of American travelers. One of them thus vented his feelings in a letter home:
"One morning I saw from the carriage window a square forty acre field of some unknown grain. It stretched for a quarter of a mile along the track, and we were just at the first quarter of it. A feeble old man with a reaping hook had begun at that corner to mow directly away from the track round the field. Calling out to him, I asked the name of the grain, but he was probably deaf and did not hear. I sat watching him awhile and then put my question to the passengers. I went to every one in the car, but no one could answer my question.
However, with some my inquiry served as an introduction, and I passed the day very pleasantly in conversation.
Going toward evening, into the smoking compartment, I settled down to read a newspaper, and as the air was close I raised a window. A sharp sound of clashing steel struck my ears.
I looked out. We had now arrived by a direct line at the far corner of the field. And the old man, having mowed along three sides, was there, whetting his blade."—Youth's Companion.

Preparing For the Wedding.
There was to be a wedding in eastern Kentucky. Many of the mountan-eers would be there. Early in the morning of the nuptial day Bud Hightower was noticed filling an old No. 12 shoe with slugs and nails and plaster of paris.
"Wot you doin', Bud?" drawled Sim Beesley.
"Can't you see wot I'm doin'? I'm makin' moonshine sperrits out'n cheese scrapin'." Sim chuckled.
"Gettin' good an' ready fr th' wed-din', I reckon."
"Goin' to throw it at th' bridegroom, maybe?"
"Goin' to throw it at him, maybe, but it ain't goin' to hit him. It's goin' to break th' face of Snipe Tolliver an' do it accidental too. I been layin' fr that ther Snipe fr a right smart spell."
And he drove an extra railway spike in the hardening mass.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Tag at the Rear.
A Chicago physician recently motored to Columbus, where he spent several days with friends on the east side.
While downtown one day he left his touring car standing in front of the Chittenden hotel, and when he came out he saw the colored doorman standing back of the machine laughing.
"What's the giggle?" queried the doctor.
"Nothing, boss," answered the genial doorman. "But you're a physician, aren't you?"
"Yes."
"I thought so when I saw the red cross on the front of your machine, but if I owned that car I'd take that sign off the back."
The doctor went around to the rear and looked at the license tag. It read,
"35,000, 111."—Columbus Dispatch.

Profiting by the Occasion.
"I met Pantouffe just now. He's awfully bad; can hardly eat anything and drinks nothing but water."
She—And didn't you like to invite him to dinner?—Pele Mele.

Consistently Dressed.
Mrs. Fuclose—Isn't my new decollete gown great? I tell you, I'm in the swim now. Mr. Fuclose—You are certainly dressed for the part.—Philadelphia Record.

TAX DEED NOTICE.
Notice is hereby given that all of the following described tracts of land and city and village lots, situated in Portage county, state of Wisconsin, were sold by the county treasurer of said county on the seventeenth (17) day of May, A. D. 1910, for the delinquent taxes of 1909, and remain unredeemed at the office of the county clerk of said county.
Now, therefore unless the taxes, interest and charges set opposite the several tracts and lots hereinafter specified, together with fees for redemption and advertising, shall be paid at the office of the county clerk of said county on or before the seventeenth (17) day of May A. D. 1913, the same will be conveyed to the purchaser thereof, pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided.
Interest is computed to the last day of redemption. Redemption fee and advertising are to be added to the amount stated in this notice.
Given under my hand and official seal at the office of the County Clerk, in the city of Stevens Point, in said county and state, this 12th day of August, A. D. 1912.
A. E. Bourn,
(Seal.) County Clerk.

Town of Alban.
Township 25, Range 8.	Sec	Amt
Vincent Modick, sec 4 of sw 1/4, except R. R. right of way.	9	$6.84
" " " " " " " "	9	8.70
" " " " " " " "	18	5.78
" " " " " " " "	18	1.12
" " " " " " " "	16	11.68
" " " " " " " "	16	46.05
" " " " " " " "	16	9.85
Town of Buena Vista.
Township 22, Range 8.	Sec	Amt
H. & N. Kollock, n 1/2 of sw 1/4.	36	6.89
" " " " " " " "	36	9.98
Town of Carson.
Township 24, Range 6.	Sec	Amt
Noble & Son, sw 1/4 of sec 4.	22	5.12
" " " " " " " "	22	5.12
" " " " " " " "	22	5.12
" " " " " " " "	27	5.12
Township 24, Range 7.
A. C. Williams, n 1-1000 n 1/2 of sec 4.	9	9.61
J. A. Martin, n 1/2 of sec 4.	16	6.66
John Smopavick, 4 acres off from sec 4 sw 1/4 of sec 4.	28	1.73
Town of Dewey.
Township 25, Range 7.	Sec	Amt
J. R. McDonald, lot 3.	3	10.19
" " " " " " " "	3	4.67
Township 25, Range 8.
W. S. Paul, sw 1/4 of sw 1/4.	12	6.95
Town of Eau Claire.
Township 25, Range 6.	Sec	Amt
A. M. Nelson, n 1/2 of sec 4.	3	6.43
" " " " " " " "	3	19.72
J. O. Foxen, sw 1/4 of sec 4.	8	12.91
" " " " " " " "	8	1.96
Pioneer Graphite Co., n 1/2 of n 1/2.	27	2.27
Pioneer Graphite Co., sec 4 of n 1/2.	27	6.25
Pioneer Graphite Co., sec 4 of n 1/2.	27	6.43
Water Smith, n 1/2 of n 1/2.	29	7.37
Ernest Klingby, sw 1/4 of n 1/2.	29	6.56
" " " " " " " "	29	7.73
Jas. Pranson, n 3/4 of sec 4 of n 1/2.	31	15.76
" " " " " " " "	31	1.63
Unknown, sec 4 of sw 1/4.	4	6.83
Robert Wheaton, commencing 35 rods w of sec corner n 1/2 of sec 4, thence s 35-7; thence running n 30 r. thence s 30 r. thence s 37 r. thence e 10 r. thence s 16 r. thence e 20 r. to place of beginning.	3	3.19
M. H. Altenburg, n 1/2 of n 1/2.	3	4.57
V. P. Atwell, sw 1/4 of n 1/2.	3	2.28
E. A. Williams, sec 4 of n 1/2.	33	8.74
Town of Grant.
Township 21, Range 7.	Sec	Amt
D. G. Barker, sw 1/4 of sw 1/4.	3	7.08
" " " " " " " "	3	5.51
Unknown, sec 4 of sw 1/4.	25	5.30
Township 22, Range 7.
Unknown, sec 4 of n 1/2.	9	136.35
Sarah Edwards, sec 4 of n 1/2.	11	6.54
" " " " " " " "	11	7.70
V. P. Atwell, n 1/2 of n 1/2.	12	7.70
" " " " " " " "	12	3.73
Town of Hull.
Township 23, Range 8.
Frank Gibbs, sec 4 of n 1/2.	1	5.03
Lewis Gibbs, sec 4 of n 1/2.	1	4.19
" " " " " " " "	1	4.19
Fr. Gibbs, sec 4 of n 1/2.	1	5.03
Township 24, Range 8.
Frank Stancheck, n 1/2 of n 1/2.	1	6.89
" " " " " " " "	1	5.16
Mike Nugent, sec 4 of sw 1/4.	15	3.77
Casper Weisberg, sec 4 of sw 1/4.	19	1.93
G. L. Gibbs, sec 4 of sw 1/4.	27	2.23
A. Heet, n 1/2 of sec 4 of sw 1/4.	27	2.23
Jos. Baker, n 1/2 of sec 4.	27	7.61
" " " " " " " "	27	12.96
" " " " " " " "	33	31.92
" " " " " " " "	33	4.39
Louis Gibbs, sec 4 of n 1/2.	36	3.68
Township 24, Range 7.
Mrs. J. Clark, s 1/2 of lot No. 3, W. Side.	14	1.97
Town of Linwood.
Township 23, Range 7.	Sec	Amt
Wm. Bullock, sw 1/4 of n 1/2.	10	7.08
" " " " " " " "	10	7.08
Township 23, Range 8.
Will Fontaine, 1/2 of sec 4 of lot No. 2, 19		1.38
Town of New Hope.
Township 24, Range 10.	Sec	Amt
Joseph Hintz, sec 4 of sw 1/4 of sw 1/4.	6	5.00
" " " " " " " "	6	12.45
" " " " " " " "	6	5.37
" " " " " " " "	6	5.37
Town of Pine Grove.
Township 21, Range 8.	Sec	Amt
John Springer, lot No. 3.	9	13.96
Portage Co. drain, sec 4.	2	13.81
Wis. Land Co., n 1-1000 n 1/2 of n 1/2.	19	17.39
Portage Co. drain, sec 19.	19	15.47
L. Mathis, n 1/2 of sec 4.	30	11.88
Portage Co. drain, sec 30.	30	5.70
Village of Bancroft.
Joe Latsky, lots 1 and 2, block 7.	11	3.77
Town of Plover.
Township 23, Range 8.	Sec	Amt
Unknown, lot 4, survey of 1888.	22	.91
Town of Sharon.
Township 25, Range 9.	Sec	Amt
Unknown, lot 4.	2	3.93
" " " " " " " "	2	3.93
A. M. Nelson, lot 21.	6	5.06
Lea Lay, n 1/2 of sw 1/4.	32	2.33
City of Stevens Point.
First Ward.
Original Plat by Strong, Ellis and Others, Mian, St. Paul & Ste. Marie Ry. Co., ex. part used for R. R. purposes, lot 1, blk 7.		$11.93
Val. Brown's Addition.
Peter Ule, s 1/2 of lot 6, block 32.		2.99
" " " " " " " "		3.79
" " " " " " " "		35.44

A. M. Nelson, lot 1, block 1.	2.99
F. F. Cook, lot 13, block 1.	14.72
A. M. Nelson, lot 20, block 1.	2.32
J. R. McDonald's Addition.
Nellie Olds, sub-division C of lot 1.	21.33
Hattie M. Rogers, beginning at sec 4 of lot 12, block 30, s. E. & O. Plat; thence n 1/2 of lot 12, thence s 1/2 of lot 12, thence to a line of Clark st, thence w 1/2 of lot 12 to beginning.	144.03
A. M. Nelson, beginning at w bank of Wis. river at low water mark, and at n cor of land formerly owned by E. Whitmer; thence s, 58 1/2 degrees w, 870 ft to center of a highway; thence n, 32 degrees 24 minutes w, 1142 ft; thence n, 77 degrees 21 minutes w, 1771 ft; thence n, 30 deg. 9 min. w, about 333 ft; thence s, 31 deg. 31, town 24, range 8; thence e on said line 1411 ft to the bank of said river; thence along the bank of said river to place of beginning, being a part of n 1/2 of nw 1/4 sec 4 and lots 1 and 2, sec 31, 134 8—about 35 acres. Also, beginning in center of Central ave., n. 60 1/2 deg. e, 21 rods and 10 links from station No. 1 in Conant Rapids road; thence n, 31 deg. 45 min. w, 42 rods and 10 links; thence n, 58 deg. 15 min. e, 32 rods and 6 links to west bank, to Central ave; thence s, 60 deg. 30 min. w, to place of beginning, excepting 50 ft front on Central ave. by 135 ft deep in sw corner—part of lot 2 in sec 31, 24, r 8 e—about 9 1/2 acres.	140.15
Second Ward.
Strong, Ellis and Others' Plat.
Aug. Ollman, a piece of land 30 feet on Crooked Way by 100 ft deep in se cor of out lot 8.	$17.55
C. G. Foster, lots 120 and 121, block 44.	15.31
E. W. Sellers, s 1/2 of lot 487, block 59.	1.87
lot 488, block 59.	16.42
Third Ward.
Smith, Briggs and Phillips' Addition.
N. Boyington estate, lots 4, 5, 6, 7, blk 22.	$209.40
Pay & Spaulding's Addition.
H. E. Vaughn, n 7/8 of lot 1 and s 1/8, blk 4.	9.70
" " " " " " " "	28.13
" " " " " " " "	4.12
W. W. Spraggon estate, lot 1, block 6.	3.49
Isaac Roe, lots 1 and 2, block 9.	18.06
B. Vierte, lot 9, block 10.	17.55
Boyington & Atwell's Addition.
J. L. Walker, sec 4 of lot 14, and except 16 ft sold to city for street, lot 15, block 1.	90.29
P. J. Riden, 34 ft wide lot 1, block 13.	4.12
N. Boyington Co., lot 6, block 13.	36.57
Boyington & Atwell's Third Addition.
L. B. Wadleigh, lot 1, block 11.	5.67
" " " " " " " "	5.67
" " " " " " " "	5.67
" " " " " " " "	5.67
" " " " " " " "	11.82
H. E. Vaughn, beg. 30 ft east of sw cor of lot 14, sec 33, 134-8 e; thence e along a line of said road 150 ft; thence n about 116 ft to a line of Main street; thence w on a line of Main st 150 ft to e line of Michigan ave; thence s along e line of Michigan ave, beginning 305 ft e cor of n 1/2 of n 1/2, sec 34-34-8 e; thence e along s line of said forty 125 ft; thence w 116 ft to e line of Main street; thence w on s line of Main st 150 ft; thence s about 116 ft, to beginning.	20.57
Fourth Ward.
Strong, Ellis and Others' Plat.
A. M. Nelson, lot 31, block 19.	$ 2.10
Valentine Brown's Addition.
P. Gonsowski, lot 5, block 22.	18.66
V. P. Atwell, lot 13, block 34.	1.87
J. A. Walker's Supplemental Addition to Walker's Second Addition.
M. Kieliszewski, except n 64 ft of lot 6, block 2, and n 35 ft of lot 7, block 2.	1.75
J. Patch's Third Addition.
J. Rogasewski, lots 17, 18 and 19, blk 11.	16.92
Fifth Ward.
Smith's Addition.
Mrs. Mary Arno, lots 12, 13 and 14, blk 4.	$ 62.61
Mrs. J. Curtis, sec 4 of lots 13 and 14, blk 4.	27.61
J. E. Boyington, lots 13 and 14, block 6.	39.95
McCulloch's Addition.
Amelia Kaiser, lot 5, block 8.	23.18
Heim's Addition.
J. Phillips estate, sec 4 of lot 13 and all of lot 14, block 1.	11.93
Sixth Ward.
Wm. Spence, commencing 24 rods s of ne cor of sec 4, sec 4, 1, 23, r 8 e; thence w to w line of lot 1, thence n 1/2 of lot 1 w line 30 rods; thence e to e line thereof; thence n to beginning, except 1 acre sold to S. Mills—14 acres.	$17.65
Wm. Spence, also a piece of land com- mencing at a point 34 rods s of ne cor of n 1/2 of sec 4, 1, 23, r 8 e; thence w 40 rods; thence s 26 rods; thence e 40 rods; thence n 26 rods to beginning—6 1/2 acres.	6.57
Wm. Spence, also a piece of land com- mencing at sw cor of n 1/2 of sec 4; thence n 8 rods; thence e 40 rods; thence s 8 rods; thence w to beginning—about 2 acres.	2.54
J. L. Baker estate, all piece of land com- mencing at s 1/2 of lot 1, 23, r 8 e, lying e of Church st—about 9 acres.	26.26
J. Phillips estate, that part of n 1/2 of n 1/2 sec 5, 1, 23, r 8 e, lying w of Water st and southeasterly of A. Good's land—about 34 acres.	1.65
J. Patch and Others' Addition.
Irvin Strong, lot 12, block 3.	2.54
A. E. Williams, lots 1 and 2, block 4.	4.34
J. King, lot 17, block 5.	2.54
J. L. Baker estate, lots 18 and 19, block 5.	13.17
J. Patch estate, lots 3 and 4, block 6.	2.54
L. Schroeder, lot 8, block 6.	2.54
E. Johnson, lot 11, block 6.	5.22
L. King, lots 15 and 16, block 7.	11.93
Homestead Sub. division of Oak Lots 33, 24, 35 and 36, Schaeffer's Addition.
R. S. Sparks, lots 11 and 12.	16.42
Central Addition.
M. Wadleigh estate, lots 5, 6, 7 and 8, blk 5, except railroad right of way of lot 9, 10, 11, block 5.	7.47
M. Wadleigh estate, except railroad right of way of lots 1, 2 and 3, block 6, and all of lot 4, block 6.	8.14
M. Wadleigh estate, lot 2, block 15.	2.54
F. Bozlee, lot 3, block 16.	2.54
M. M. Strong's Addition.
A. M. Nelson, a fraction lying south of lot 607, block 68.	2.54
M. Wadleigh, one-eighth except railroad right of way of lot 648, block 73.	1.30
Mary's Little Ring.
Mary had a little ring; 'twas given by her beau; and everywhere that Mary went that ring was sure to go. She took the ring with her one day when she went out to tea, where she might display it to the girls, who num- bered twenty-three. And when the girls all saw that ring, they made a great ado, exclaim- ing, with one voice, "Has it at last got round to you?"—London Tit-Bits.
Unreasonable.
"What is your objection to Dr. Food- lam?" "His unreasonableness. He told me I should have to take more nourish- ment and then charged me so much that I couldn't afford to take any."— Satire.

PAID ADVERTISEMENTS.
The following notice was authorized and is paid for by Frank Boyanowski of Stevens Point:
I respectfully solicit your vote when you go to the polls at the primary election, Sept. 3, being a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds on the Republican ticket. Am fully qualified and capable of transacting the duties of the office and will appreciate the support of all electors in Portage county.

Frank Boyanowski.

William J. Delaney, whose postoffice address is Stevens Point, Wis., has authorized and paid for the following announcement:
To the voters of Portage county: I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of register of deeds, subject to the Democratic primaries to be held on Tuesday, Sept. 3. Your aid and support is solicited.
W. J. Delaney.

Thos. J. Pitt of the town of Eau Claire has authorized the publication and paid for the following announcement:
I respectfully announce my candidacy for the office of Register of Deeds at the Democratic primaries to be held Tuesday, Sept. 3d, 1912.
Thos. J. Pitt.

Carl O. Dorrud, whose address is Nelsonville, Wis., and who is a resident of the town of Buena Vista, has authorized and paid for the following notice:
I hereby announce my candidacy for the Republican nomination for the office of sheriff, subject to the Republican primaries to be held Tuesday, Sept. 3, 1912.
CARL O. DORRUD.

John A. Berry, whose address is Plover, Wis.,

By ED. D. GLENNON.

TERMS. $2.00 PER ANNUM

Entered at the Stevens Point Postoffice as second class mail matter. Published every Wednesday at 518 Main street.

Extra copies of The Gazette may be secured at this office, at French, Campbell &amp; Co.'s and at W. H. Skinner's stores.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

For President—
Gov. WOODROW WILSON
Of New Jersey

For Vice President—
Gov. THOMAS R. MARSHALL
Of Indiana

Electors-at-large—Wendall A. Anderson, La Crosse.
Louis G. Bomrich, Milwaukee.

District Electors—
1st Dist. E. F. Merton, Waukesha.
2nd " Oscar F. Roessler, Jefferson.
3rd " George W. Crawford, Mineral Point.
4th Dist. J. E. Dodge, Milwaukee.
5th " Rollin B. Mallory.
6th " Chas. H. Lambert, Berlin.
7th " W. N. Coffland, Viroqua.
8th " E. C. Zimmerman, Wausau.
9th " John A. Kuypers, DePere.
10th " George C. Clive, Hudson.
11th " John A. Hobe, Superior.

SOUTH SIDE AND RAILROAD

Personal and News Items of More or Less Importance to Readers of The Gazette.

Miss Marie Carver has returned from a visit at Wausau.

Alfred and Lora Spindler have gone to Almond for a week's visit.

Mrs. Carl Haase is making a two weeks visit in Fond du Lac and Milwaukee.

Miss Lillian Rohrdanz of Fond du Lac is visiting friends and relatives in this city.

Mrs. F. H. Parker and two sons have returned from a visit with her mother and other relatives at Merrill.

Archie Gould of Nekosia visited over Sunday with his aunt, Mrs. C. J. Green, and cousin, Blaine Carlton.

Misses May and Catherine Warner of Appleton are guests at C. H. McCredy's home on McCulloch street.

Mrs. V. U. Ballou, a former resident of this city, came down from Abbotsford last Sunday to visit a day or two among local friends.

Miss Minnie Hartel of Wausau was a guest at the home of her uncle, Policeman Ed. Hartel, for a couple of days previous to Monday.

Jesse Cook, driver for the Western Express Co., has gone to Antioch, Ill., where he will be employed by the same company for a month.

Mrs. John Mellor, Jr., and little son and baby daughter were here from Milwaukee part of last week to visit at the home of the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Hawkins.

Mrs. A. Frazer and two daughters arrived here from Plainfield last night and boarded this morning's west bound Soo train for Swift Current, Saskatchewan, Canada, where they will remain some time.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bunnell, 613 Dixon street, mourn the death of their seven months old daughter, Hazel, last Saturday afternoon from meningitis. The remains were taken to Colby, their former home, for interment.

Miss Ella Schuetz of Chicago arrived here last week to join her cousin, Miss Bertha Lochner of Milwaukee, who came up a few days before. Both young ladies are former Stevens Pointers and delight to visit the scenes of their childhood days.

About twenty-five young ladies and gentlemen were very pleasantly entertained last evening at the home of Miss Pearl King, 904 Shaurette street. The guest of honor on this occasion was Miss Smalley of Grand Rapids, Mich., who is visiting her brother, Geo. W. Smalley.

The Columbia county fair will be held at Portage next week and as the attractions this year promise to be especially good, big crowds are expected from all towns along the Soo branch. Special trains will leave Stevens Point at about 6 a. m. on Thursday and Friday, August 29 and 30, arriving in Portage at 10 o'clock. The return trip will begin at 8 p. m.

J. O. Belz of Washington, D. C., is spending a day or two at the home of his sister-in-law, Dr. Mary Patch. His four year old daughter has been here several weeks, having accompanied Dr. Patch on her return from the east.

Mr. Belz is connected with the government agricultural department and each year inspects the numerous experimental stations throughout the country.

E. E. Carpenter, who had been enjoying a visit of several weeks in the far west, returned home Monday. The homeward journey was made via the Canadian Pacific through the northwest country and Mr. Carpenter is especially enthusiastic over the wonderful beauties to be seen in that section.

Mr. and Mrs. John Porter, who have also been in the west, are expected here the last of the week.

The Soo company is carrying large importations of cattle from the Canadian side at present, especially from the vicinity of Alberta, a train consisting of twenty-two cars passing through this city last Sunday morning.

Arrangements have been made for the handling of at least one train load of cattle each Sunday in order that they may arrive in Chicago to be placed on the market early Monday morning.

Should the demand for the cattle increase two trains will be run each week.

Mrs. Anna Duffee, who makes her home with a daughter, Mrs. F. H. Patterson, on McCulloch street, left here last Sunday morning for Massachusetts, to be gone a couple of months. She will visit her brother at Springfield and a sister at Lake Pleasant.

Before returning to Stevens Point the lady will spend some days with brothers in Chicago. Mrs. Duffee is a native of Springfield, and as she had not been east for twelve years, a pleasant visit is anticipated.

W. H. Lindow left here this morning for Ithaca, N. Y., on an extended visit.

Miss Anna Zimmer left for Green Bay this morning to visit a week or two. The young lady teaches at the Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Patterson spent several days last week in Almond, visiting at the homes of Fred Schilling and Mrs. W. C. Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Oberlatz and children will spend next week visiting among relatives at Plainfield, Almond and other places in Wausau and Portage counties.

Misses Mary and Anna Polczynski, whose home is at Michigan avenue and Patch street, went to Plover this morning to attend the picnic given by St. Bronislava's congregation.

Mrs. Martin Rieschl and son Martin returned last Friday from a couple of months' visit in the west. Most of their time was spent at Bellingham, Wash., with their daughters and sisters, Mrs. Jos. Krause and Miss Mary Rieschl. The Stevens Pointers were also at Denver, Col., where they visited Mrs. Rieschl's son, Mike Rieschl.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Michaels of Chicago are enjoying a couple of weeks' visit at the home of the lady's parents, C. Zimmer and wife, on Strong's avenue. Mr. Michaels fills a good position with the Standard Oil Co.

Their son, Wilbur, who is now a mechanical engineer, is expected from Ohio the last of this week for a visit at his boyhood home.

Back From the North.

Geo. H. Warner and Jas. A. Cashin of this city and Guy E. Carley of Plover returned Tuesday morning after a trip by auto through the northern part of the state. The weather was very disagreeable most of the time, it raining nearly every day, and consequently the outing was not as enjoyable as it should have been. On the return trip, at Rhineland, they met the other Stevens Point boys, Forest Grant, Carl Jacobs, Ralph Cook, Geo. Moeschler, Fred Knope and Lawrence Jauch, who were on their way to Eagle River and will come down the Wisconsin in canoes.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Articles and Items of News that Appeared in the Columns of The Gazette, Quarter of a Century Ago Today.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Bozlee at their home near Bancroft, Aug. 15, 1887.

Rev. W. C. Schilling, who has been pastor of the Lutheran church in this city for 13 years, will move to Woodland, Dodge county, in a couple of weeks.

Peter Ule and son, Louis, returned from Westfield, last Friday, where they had been doing the brick and stone work upon the new school house being erected by I. M. Moss.

Miss Emma Bergersen and Miss Hedeman of Chicago are in the city visiting at the residence of L. P. Moen. The first named young lady is a former resident of Stevens Point.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Jacobs mourn the death of their little son, Raymond Joseph, aged one year and eight months, who passed away last Sunday afternoon, after an illness of only a few hours.

Harold, the four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Kelsey, died at the home of his parents on Plover street, last Saturday morning. The remains were interred at Tomah, the former home of the family.

A sneak thief entered the residence of Maj. E. R. Herren recently and stole a case containing jewelry belonging to Mrs. Herren valued at $300.

Among the articles taken were the engagement and wedding rings of that lady.

Members of the Eintrachts Verein tendered Mrs. Paul Roettger a pleasant surprise serenade last Thursday evening, it being her birthday anniversary. They were invited in and a pleasant hour spent beneath the Roettger hospitable roof.

Mrs. H. G. Dreyer, a former resident of this county, died at her home in Merrill last Thursday morning, the cause of death being typhoid fever. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Guilday, residents of the town of Stockton, where she was married in 1880.

Mrs. Christine Gross, N. Gross and wife, Mrs. A. Gross, John Kheil and wife, Miss Emily Kheil, Miss Rose Gross and Peter Jacobs went down to Milwaukee last Sunday to witness the enrollment of Miss Mary Gross as a sister of the order of Notre Dame, which ceremony took place Monday.

John Prain of Wausau, who is running the lath department in the saw mill of Parcher, J. & A. Stewart & Co. in that city, was in the city last Saturday. He was on his way to the town of Buena Vista, where his parents reside, to spend Sunday and where his wife had been visiting for several days.

Mrs. B. H. Gulden died at her home near the fair grounds last Tuesday evening, after an illness of about eight months with consumption. She was in the 36th year of her age and had lived in Stevens Point for about four years.

Last January two of her children died of diphtheria and this loss had a most distressing effect upon the mother. She is survived by her husband and three children.

Bids for Sewer.

Notice is hereby given that the street committee of the city of Stevens Point, Wis., will receive bids for the construction and furnishing of all material for laying of a sewer from Main street north on Fremont street to a point directly west of the hospital building. Approximate distance, 1,000 feet, according to plans and specifications now on file in the office of the city clerk. All material to be of No. 1 quality and approved by the street committee.

Bids will be received until 2 p. m. August 24, 1912, at the office of the city clerk. The street committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

All bids must be accompanied by a certified check for at least five per cent of estimated cost. Address all communications to

Guy W. Rogers City Clerk.

VISITS THE FAR WEST

E. E. Carpenter Writes From Bellingham, Wash., of Points Visited in That State and Oregon.

Editor Gazette:—Will send you a few lines that may interest some of the people back home. We left Stevens Point July 11th and arrived at St. Paul at four o'clock that afternoon. There we laid over four hours and then traveled all night. In the morning we were in Minnesota and North Dakota. The crops in Minnesota were not very good but they looked somewhat better as we neared the Dakota line. All pieces of corn were poor, not over six or eight inches high, but we could see thousands and thousands of acres of small grain and all except rye looked good. As we went farther west through Dakota the crops were poorer and we saw some very poor land especially in what is known as the bad lands, just before crossing the Rockies. I believe it would take a pretty smart goat to get a living there.

In crossing the mountains three engines were attached to our train, two at the head end and another at the rear. From our seat in the middle of the train we could look out and see the two engines ahead and the other one behind and also the rear coach. At the summit of the mountain we were 5,548 feet above sea level. After passing down the other side of the mountain we made up lost time and arrived at Spokane at ten o'clock in the evening. There I bade goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. John Porter, who had accompanied me thus far on the journey.

Spokane is a fine city of about 100,000 people. From Spokane I proceeded west to Portland, Ore. One can see a number of small mill towns as he is journeying through this part of the country. From Portland I went to Astoria, where fishing is the principal industry. I next visited a town called Goble and from there I took a boat across the Columbia river to Kalama, Wash. Chehalis and Pe Ell were also visited. My mother and one of my brothers live at the latter place, which is a lumbering center.

It is very interesting for an easterner to see the way logging is done out here. To an upright engine known as a "donkey" are attached two wire cables, the larger one being about one and one-fourth inches thick, and the other about one-half inch in diameter. The latter line is called the "pull-back." The main cable pulls the logs down and the smaller one carries the big cable back to the woods. From three to eight logs are cut from one tree and some of the logs are so large that they will make a full carload. I saw several trees here that measured as much as sixty-three feet in circumference.

From Pe Ell I boarded the train for Lincoln Creek and then to Rochester, where I visited my sisters, Alice and Clara. Several days were spent very pleasantly here after which I continued my travels, going next to Bellingham, Wash., where these notes were written August 10th.

Yours very truly,
E. E. Carpenter.

We are receiving some high grade timothy and clover seed. Market considerable lower than last spring. Phone 19. The Skalski Company.

Board of Registry.

State of Wisconsin, Portage County, City of Stevens Point,--ss.

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Registry in the several election precincts of the city of Stevens Point, will be in session at the polling places in each of said precincts on the 27th day of August, 1912, and that a second meeting thereof will be held on primary election day, September 2, 1912.

All persons desiring to vote at said primary should be registered at the first meeting of said board of registry. All persons desiring to vote at the general election in November should be registered on either the first or second meeting of said board. Said polling places for the several wards are as follows:

First ward—Engine house No. 1.
Second ward—Engine house No. 2.
Third ward—Election booth on Fremont street.
Fourth ward—Residence of T. Olsen.
Fifth ward—Voting booth on Dixon street.
Sixth ward—Voting booth.
Dated this 19th day of August, 1912.
Guy W. Rogers, City Clerk.

Dr. E. R. PERKINS

Nineteen Years
An Experienced Specialist

Teeth extracted without pain

The Greatest Invention of the Age for suffering humanity. No danger from colds, no soreness of gums, no physical debility thereafter.

I have thousands of families throughout the west that would not go to any other dentist for their extracting. I charge very much less than the big dental specialists of the cities, and I extract more teeth than any single specialist in the United States, all for the very valid reason that I cover a large territory (three states), using methods that are PAINLESS, QUICK AND SAFE, backed up by twenty years successful specializing.

Jacobs House
September 3rd

Office hours: 9 a. m. to 2:30 p. m.
LADY ATTENDANT

DEATH CAME SUDDENLY

Mrs. J. Kirsling of Arnott Passes Away From Heart Disease, Monday Evening—Funeral Thursday Morning.

Mrs. Jacob Kirsling, an old resident of Portage county, having resided here since girlhood, passed away at her home north of Arnott at about 8:30 o'clock Monday evening. Death came very suddenly and was due to heart trouble, with which she had been afflicted for some time. She went to her room to retire for the night, and soon thereafter one of her daughters, Miss Rose, stepped in and found her mother lying on the floor in an unconscious condition, dying a few minutes later.

The deceased lady was 56 years of age on the 26th of last January and came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee, from Prussia when she was two years old. They came direct to Winona, Minn., where the family made their home for about ten years, the father passing away in the meantime. Her maiden name was Annie Lee, and a few years after her father's death her mother was married to Hypolite Milanowski, and the town of Sharon became their home. She was married to Jacob Kirsling thirty-six years ago, and they lived at Ellis for a number of years, where the husband was engaged in business, thereafter removing to the homestead near Arnott. Besides her husband, she is survived by twelve children, Mrs. Anton Tomaszewski of Stockton, Mrs. Mary Boranski and Mrs. John Grevech of this city, Daniel, Barney, Edward, Felix, Rose, Alize, Anne and Susie Kirsling, at home. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Effie Sheddloski of Tomahawk, and two half-sisters, Mrs. Mary Gosh of Arnott and Mrs. Pauline Gosh of Hatley.

The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, services to be conducted at the Catholic church at Fancher, at that hour by Rev. L. J. Pescinski, followed by interment in the adjoining cemetery.

UNITED STATES BANK EXAMINERS

Go carefully over the conditions of this bank at different intervals. Depositors' interests are protected first, before anybody or anything else. The continued growth of this bank is the best possible evidence that we treat all patrons with courtesy and extend to them every facility to be found in a modern banking institution. Your account will be welcomed here.

Citizens National Bank

OF STEVENS POINT, WIS.

Capital, $100,000

Surplus, $30,000

More Locals.

Mrs. L. A. Pomeroy of Amherst came up this morning for a visit among friends in town.

Mrs. M. A. Wheeler and Miss Elizabeth Weston went to Marshfield this morning to attend the fair and visit friends in that city.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fallon left for Milwaukee last Sunday to visit a few weeks among relatives. She was accompanied to that city by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Fallon, who had been enjoying several days' stay here.

D. E. Frost left for Madison this morning to attend the state convention of postmasters.

Chief and Mrs. John S. Hafsoos returned last evening from a week's visit with his sister in Iowa. They enjoyed the outing immensely.

Dr. L. E. Spencer of Wausau, state sanitary inspector and member of the Wisconsin State Board of Health, is making an inspection of our public schools this afternoon in company with Dr. C. von Neupert, Sr., health officer, and F. J. Blood, clerk of the school board.

August Bargains

On end of the season goods. All seasonable goods, odds and ends are priced to make them move. Nothing is to be carried over.

LADIES' MUSLIN UNDERWEAR

New, crisp and up-to-date garments, consisting of Princess Slips, Combination Suits, Skirts, Night Gowns and Drawers.

38c for	50c garments
57c "	75c "
73c "	$1.00 "
$1.10 "	1.50 "
1.39 "	2.00 "
1.87 "	2.50 "
2.33 "	3.00 "

CORSET COVER EMBROIDERIES

19c for	25c values
25c "	35c "
32c "	40c "
37c "	50c "

27 inch and 45 inch Embroideries and Flouncings

40c for	50c values
50c "	65c "
58c "	75c "
73c "	$1.00 "
95c "	1.25 "
$1.10 "	1.50 "
1.35 "	2.00 "
1.90 "	2.50 "
2.00 "	3.00 "

LADIES' SUMMER UNDERWEAR

19c for	25c Union Suits
38c "	50c "
73c "	$1.00 "
29c for	Misses Union Suits

Ladies' Long Sleeve Vests. 38c for 50c values; drawers to match, same price.

Men's Blue Shirts and Drawers 35c for 50c values

DRESSING SACQUES

35c for	50c values
50c "	75c "
75c "	$1.00 "

Ladies' Ribbed Corset Covers 29c for 50c values

10c a pair for Engineer's Canvas Glove Gauntlets worth 15c and 20c a pair.

EXTRA SPECIAL—One lot Men's Pants, for this sale only - $1.50 per pair

NO PREMIUM TICKETS GIVEN ON ABOVE GOODS

IRVING S. HULL

LADIES' SHIRT WAISTS

New and up-to-date styles

90c for $1.25 values

$1.10 " 1.50 "

1.35 " 2.00 "

Waists that are not as new in style, cut way down

Boys' Hercules Knickerbocker Suits

Rain proof. The best suit made for boys.

$4.00 for $5.00 suit

5.00 " 6.50 "

6.00 " 7.50 "

No reduction on Navy Blue Suits

Lawns, Dimities, Flaxons, Poplins and Summer Silks marked way down.

We have a few colored umbrellas, 26 in. wide, which will be sold cheap.

$1.90 for $3.00 umbrellas
2.65 " 4.00 "

Men's and Women's Black Umbrellas

$1.90 for $2.50 umbrellas

2.00 " 3.00 "

2.75 " 4.00 "

3.75 " 5.00 "

4.50 " 6.00 "

5.00 " 6.50 &amp; $7.00 umbrellas

6.00 " 8.00 &amp; 8.50 "

All of our Men's, Women's, Children's and Boys' Oxfords, Pumps and Every thing in the Low Shoe line is included.

75c for $1.00 values

$1.00 " 1.25 "

1.15 " 1.50 "

1.50 " 2.00 "

1.90 " 2.50 "

2.20 " 3.00 "

2.50 " 3.50 "

3.00 " 4.00 "

Crossett Union Made Shoes for Men. The best wearing shoe in America for the money. All are box toes.

$2.25 for $3.00 Shoes

2.50 " 3.50 "

3.25 " 4.00 "

4.00 " 5.00 "

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 21, 1912

NORMAL school girl wishes place to work for room and board after Aug. 30. Reference given. Address V, care The Gazette. w2

FOR SALE—Residence and three acres of land just north of Normal school, on Jordan road, will be sold at a bargain. Call at 1044 Normal avenue or phone red 269. 2w

FOR SALE—Oak bed room suit, child's iron crib, baby chair, sideboard, dining table, center table, rockers, cot, Jewel heater No. 16, laundry stove, mason jars and various other things. Call at 1215 Main street. 1

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 222 North Division street, corner Briggs. Two blocks from Normal. If interested inquire of or write Carl T. Gunderson, 803 Clark street. tf

FARM of 120 acres, stock and machinery for sale on very reasonable terms. Address James W. Boyle, 1112 18th street, Milwaukee. tf

FOR SALE—Residence property at 502 Franklin street can be bought at a bargain. Call at once or telephone 54. tf

FOR SALE—160 acre farm, 2 miles southeast of Plover, 140 acres clear, balance wood land; house, stone cellar. Very large barn, granary and other buildings; wind mill. Farm all fenced in 20 acre lots. Fine potato and stock farm. For price and other information see or address J. J. Heffron, 313 Clark street, Stevens Point, Wis. tf

FOR RENT—My store building on N. Second street, or will sell the entire property at a bargain. See me at once or address me at Neenah, Wis. Jas. Quinn. tf

C. H. Cashin spent yesterday at Wausau on legal business.

Miss Dora Kolinski is visiting in Milwaukee, to remain a couple of weeks.

Mrs. D. N. Alcorn and daughter, Margaret, are visiting with friends at Green Bay.

Dan Harris of Duluth has been visiting old time friends in the city for a couple of days.

M. H. Ward was down from Mosinee to spend Sunday and Monday at his home in the city.

Mrs. W. W. Mitchell is spending this week among friends and old acquaintances at Wausau.

Miss Florence Gething left for Marshfield Tuesday to spend several days among her girl friends.

Sam Chevlin came down from Antigo the first of the week to visit relatives and friends for a short time.

New pillow tops and other art materials have been received at Langenberg's art store, 145 Main street. Call and see them.

Miss Rose Helm has returned to her duties as stenographer at Highland Park, Ill., after visiting at her home on Main street.

Prof. and Mrs. F. N. Spindler have returned from an enjoyable outing at the Waupaca lakes, where they were for several weeks.

See us when in the market for Portland cement, wall plaster, lime, etc. Our stock is new and complete at all times. The Skalski Co.

Ladies, when wanting embroidery silks of any kind, D. M. C. cotton for Irish crochet, etc., call at Langenberg's art store, 145 Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Bremmer and Mrs. F. M. Playman went to Amherst Junction Tuesday morning to attend the soldiers' picnic at Lake Emily.

Don't fail to see that your name is registered in the ward in which you reside, next Tuesday, and thus avoid the trouble of swearing in your vote later. The Ellis Creamery Co., with a capital of $2,400, has filed articles of incorporation, the incorporators being Anton Eiden, Tim Welch and J. W. Dunegan.

Mrs. Chas. Krueger and son of Coloma, spent Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Adam Kuhl, and were accompanied back by Ada Kuhl, who is spending a few days there.

Frank Mersch, a former Portage countyite and a brother of M. J. Mersch of this city, has moved from St. Paul to Seattle, Wash., where he contemplates making his abiding place.

A. A. Bierce, one of Iowa's prominent civil war veterans, visited here last Friday night and Saturday as a guest of Mike Clark, with whom he "drank from the same canteen" fifty years ago.

Mrs. J. W. Clifford entertained thirty little friends of her daughter, Kathleen, with a lawn party last Friday afternoon, when games were played, refreshments served and a jolly time enjoyed.

Guy W. Rogers is filling the position of city clerk pro tem, due to the death of John K. Vosburgh, and it is believed that Mayor Walters will appoint him to that position at the next meeting of the council.

Mrs. A. J. Beranek, wife of the proprietor of the Farmers Home, submitted to an operation at the hospital connected with the River Pines Sanatorium, last Saturday morning, and is doing nicely.

Mrs. J. L. McCadden of North Fond du Lac and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Adams, of Jeanette, Pa., visited at the Lott Fardon home on Normal avenue for a couple of days prior to Monday morning, when they left for a visit at Westfield.

By an official notice published in this issue it will be seen that the board of registry will meet in the different wards on Tuesday next, Aug. 27th, and on primary election day, Sept. 3d, the second meeting of the board will be held. Be sure and register.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Harrigan of Fulton, Ala., arrived in the city the last of the week and are spending a short vacation among old friends of the latter, who was formerly Miss Nellie Gray, and will also visit at other points before departing for the south.

Sam Young, mail agent on the Soo, with headquarters at Eau Claire, is visiting among friends in this city. Mr. Young has just returned from a two weeks' trip through the west, visiting Spokane, Seattle and other important towns. The outing was highly enjoyed.

Miss Lena and Leon Carley have been spending a week among relatives at Oakkosh and Omro.

Buy your flour, feed, corn meal, middlings, bran, oats, wheat and oil meal at Chas. A. Hamacker's. w2

The Misses Florence and Louise Kollock of Bancroft are visiting Miss Anna Clark at the Clark cottage, Echo Dell.

Mrs. Rowley and daughter of Valentine, Neb., spent Sunday at the J. A. Bremmer residence, enroute to Boston, Mass.

Rev. T. W. North delivered a sermon at the Soldiers' Home, Waupaca, Monday evening, in the absence of the regular chaplain.

Mrs. John McGuire arrived here from Chicago last week for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Collins, 1429 Main street.

Miss Evelyn Oster left Monday morning for Chicago, where she will spend several weeks visiting with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dignan and Aubrey Dignan of Plainfield spent Sunday at the S. Fonstad residence on Washington avenue.

Guy Love and Emil Seidler boarded Monday afternoon's Soo train for Milwaukee and Chicago, where they expect to spend a week or more.

Mrs. Mary Scholl was called to Merrill, the first of the week, to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Chas. Creapo, who passed away at Minneapolis last Saturday morning.

Mrs. A. Eagleburger is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Dumbleton at Troy Center, and will also visit with Mrs. W. K. Eagleburger at Waupun before her return.

Mrs. John W. Glennon and daughter, Bertha, are spending the week in Milwaukee, visiting at the homes of the lady's niece and aunt, Mrs. E. P. Kuntz and Mrs. James Markey.

O. E. Wood spent last Sunday at Antigo visiting his brother, Ira D. Wood, head of the commercial department in the Antigo schools and who also conducts a summer school there.

Misses Martha and Helen Lescefski, who make their home at Rhineland, the former for the past couple of years and the latter for nearly a year, are visiting with their parents on Wood street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fisher and the latter's two sisters, Misses Cora and Marguerite Munn of Milwaukee, returned from a pleasant outing of two weeks on the Apostle Islands, Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bandow, Jr., and little daughter, of Elkhart, Ind., are spending the week in the city visiting at the home of his parents on Wisconsin street and her father, Wm. Moody, on Central avenue.

Mrs. Mike Glodowski and Mrs. Paul Shulzer of Stockton have returned from a week's visit with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Frank Glodowsky at Chippewa Falls, and enjoyed a very pleasant time while there.

Robt. C. Rowe, who now fills a good position with Kroeger Bros. Co. in Milwaukee, enjoyed a couple of weeks' vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Rowe. He returned south Sunday afternoon.

F. H. Murray, of "good things to eat" fame, was laid up at his home on Main street several days last week, suffering with an attack of muscular rheumatism. It came without warning and for a couple of days he was barely able to move.

Fred M. Playman has been at La Crosse since Monday, going there to attend a gathering of the so-called "insurgents" belonging to the Modern Woodmen order. The principal object of the meeting is to protest against the recent raise in assessment rates.

Miss Josephine Ott has returned to her home in Chicago after spending a couple of weeks visiting at the home of John Kolz at Ellis. While there Miss Ott made many friends and was well pleased with her trip to one of the most prosperous towns in central Wisconsin.

The concert which was to have been given in the opera house at Grand Rapids, this evening, by the Misses Hein, Wedge and Knoller, is postponed until Friday evening because of today being Grand Rapids day at the Marshfield fair. Quite a few people may go down from this city.

Twenty-two ninety day appointments as deputy game wardens to serve during the fall hunting season were made by the state department at Madison last Monday. Two residents of Portage county were among the favored ones, Jay V. Kelsey of this city and J. M. Lowe of Bancroft.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. O'Brien, who moved from Stevens Point to St. Paul a few years ago, and where they have since been engaged in the hotel business, are now located at Detroit, Mich., where he is proprietor of the Rosedale Hotel, 222 Fort street West, opposite the Union depot.

Miss Anna Helgeland left here last Thursday morning for Brill, Barron county, to spend several days with relatives, after which she will go to Minnesota for an extended visit. The young lady had been engaged in the dressmaking business here much of the time for the past couple of years.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Whitney of Oakland, Cal., were visitors to this city the first of the week, he having lived here for a time some thirty-six years ago, when he worked at his trade as a carpenter. They have resided at Oakland for twenty years, and are making a trip through the country, intending to go as far east as Portland, Maine.

Prof. Hyer of the Normal faculty is as usual spending his vacation at work. The week before last he conducted an institute at Wausau, and last week was engaged at Waushesha. Yesterday and today he is doing institute work at Manitowoc, Thursday and Friday he goes to Sturgeon Bay, and his week's task ends with a one day institute at Green Bay, Saturday.

W. F. Mersch, who has been spending the summer in the city and at Arnott, is now at St. Paul, where he will remain permanently. Mr. Mersch was proprietor of a business college at Rhineland during the past year or two, but has severed his connection with the same, and which has now been discontinued by the former proprietor, O. E. Wood of this city.

Mrs. C. von Neupert and daughter, Miss Frances, Miss Frances Hadecek and Wm. G. Bate, Jr., accompanied by Miss Potter of New London, drove to Milwaukee last week in Mrs. Wm. Bergman's car, which was taken from there to the home of the latter at Plattville by Mr. Bate and his mother, who went down by rail, and the others returned home on the Soo Friday morning.

Robert McNally and Miss Margaret Foley of Chicago were guests of Miss Ramona Pfaffner over Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Frost and children, who had been enjoying an outing near Coloma, have returned to the city.

Principal Wood of the local business college is enjoying a week's vacation at Plainfield, Almond and other points south of here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schroeder of Wausau visited here Monday night while on their way to the gentleman's former home at Berlin.

Miss Mollie Stahl of Grand Rapids and Miss Ella Schmeling of Wausau are spending the week with Miss Stahl's sister, Mrs. R. W. Morse.

The ladies of St. Stephen's church are giving an ice cream social on the rectory lawn this afternoon and evening, to which you are all invited.

Mrs. Wm. O'Brien and daughter, Miss Ethel, of Montello, were guests of relatives in this city Tuesday. The young lady came up for medical treatment.

Theo. Neuman of Milwaukee completed a three weeks' visit at the home of his aunt, Mrs. S. J. Kryger, and returned to Milwaukee Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Julia Minnebeck returned from a visit to Rochester and other New York cities, last week, and is now spending a few days at the Waupaca lakes.

Chas. Derrick, a well known resident of the West Side, left here Tuesday morning for a week's visit at Waupaca, Neenah, Manitowoc and Two Rivers.

Theo. H. Assmann of Chariton, Iowa, returned to the southwest Tuesday. He had been enjoying a week's visit with his brother, O. A. Assmann, cashier of the State bank.

Mrs. E. L. Lemma and niece, Miss Margaret Griffin, went to Minneapolis Tuesday afternoon for a visit with their nephew and brother, Ray Griffin, and among other relatives there.

Miss Louise Diver, who graduated from the local Normal in 1911, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. John Reton on Main street. Miss Diver will again teach in Almond the coming year.

M. J. Mersch went to Amherst Junction Tuesday to complete work on a modern brick house he is building for Aug. Faveiski. Victor S. Prais and his crew of painters will also be employed there a day or two.

Mrs. Wm. McAskill of Glidden was a guest at Geo. L. Rogers' home last night while enroute to Madison to attend the convention of postmasters. Mrs. McAskill fills this government position in the Ashland county town.

G. W. Pratt, potato buyer for Wm. Carley at Bancroft, attended to business matters in this city Monday night. Mr. Pratt expects to open the 1912-1913 season next Monday. Unless blight should affect the potatoes, a big yield is looked for.

Mrs. W. J. Leary of Amherst Junction visited here Monday night and part of Tuesday with her sisters, Mrs. P. Dunn and Mrs. Margaret Anderson. The latter lady had been visiting for several weeks among relatives in Amherst, Lanark and Almond townships.

L. P. Moen, Adam J. Kuhl and Paul Pasternacki are spending the week on a fishing trip up the Wisconsin river. They drove to the vicinity of Knowlton and will return by boat, camping along the banks each night. Unless the mosquitoes are too bothersome they anticipate a pleasant outing.

Peter Trierweiler, Sr., who had been at Minneapolis since last fall, came down to spend the week with his son in this city and his daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Higgins, in Stockton. Mr. Trierweiler was accompanied by another daughter, Mrs. Matt Savakol and her two children, who are also enjoying a visit among familiar scenes.

The following ladies went to Waupaca Monday for a visit at the Jensen cottage at the lakes: Mesdames V. P. Atwell, T. H. Hanna, G. B. Clark, S. K. Rounds, J. W. Clifford, E. J. Pfiffner, and Miss Julia Minnebeck. They were also accompanied by Mrs. Clifford's daughter Kathleen and niece, Ruth Short, and Tom Hanna, Jr.

Mrs. K. Bendickson of Marshfield has been at the Bruce Hotel the past week with her nine year old daughter. The child has been blind in the right eye for six years, which recently had caused much trouble, and to make sure of saving the left eye Drs. Bird and Cowan performed an enucleation Saturday. The child is improving nicely and will return home in a few days.

Otto Strache has resigned his position as clerk in the Philip Rothman & Co. store, to take effect next Saturday, and will make arrangements to open a mercantile store in the Geisler building on Division street, South Side, in a few weeks. Mr. Strache has been with the Rothman Co. for a number of years, is a trustworthy and faithful employee, and will no doubt meet with deserved success.

T. W. Anderson and niece, Miss Ella Cline, returned Tuesday afternoon from Rhineland, where they attended the wedding of their niece and cousin, Miss Mae Brown, to Robt. Freeman Tompkins, which took place last Thursday. Mr. Anderson and Miss Cline were accompanied here by Mrs. J. O. Raymond, who will spend several days among old friends in town.

In what is known as the Grant school building at Marshfield, four teachers will be employed next year, three of whom are Stevens Point young ladies, Misses Anna Mason, Adeline Grimm and Sadie Buck. Miss Mae Curran of this city will again have charge of the commercial department in the Marshfield High school and Miss Jennie Wadleigh, who graduated from the local Normal in 1911, will teach 7th grade classes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Waugh visited among former neighbors in this city last Saturday while returning to Aberdeen, Wash., from a business trip to Chicago and other eastern cities. Mr. Waugh formerly represented a Chicago wholesale dry goods house and lived at 736 Strong's avenue. He went west a couple of years ago and is now a prosperous business man at Aberdeen, one of the thriving cities on the Pacific coast.

Jos. A. Buskey, who has been employed as clerk in the Hub clothing store at Rhineland for the past couple of years, returned to that city on Tuesday after spending a few days visiting his parents, brothers and sisters in this city. Joe says Rhineland is a good town, and as Stevens Pointers were not only the discoverers of the town site, but were the first to locate there and build the foundation for what the place is today, it could not be otherwise.

A. R. Week was a business and social visitor at Wausau last Monday.

Miss Frances Grabowski left here today for a visit with her brother, Thomas, at Neenah.

R. L. Kraus, vice president of the First National bank, was down from his home at Marshfield last Thursday.

Jas. Getman of Hancock was an over Sunday visitor at the home of his sister, Mrs. Amos Wilson, 927 Briggs street.

Robt. W. Morse went to Waupaca Tuesday afternoon, where he will do court reporting for Judge Fowler a day or two.

Ernest Blomquist of Ironwood is visiting his sister, Mrs. G. S. Gunderson. He is house salesman for the Cudaby Packing Co.

Martin Kursevski, a well known merchant tailor at Ashland and a former resident of this city, is very ill at his home on the bay shore.

A baby boy, the first son in the family, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Blood at their home on Normal avenue last Saturday morning.

O. A. Nelson, auditor at the First National bank, is enjoying two weeks' vacation and will spend part of the time at St. Paul and Minneapolis.

Misses Margaret Schofield and Mary Harger of Wausau were Stevens Point visitors last Friday and Saturday, guests of Mrs. L. R. and Miss Winifred Lamb.

L. F. A. Hein returned from a short business trip to Urbana, Ill., Monday. He will have charge of the manual training department of the Urbana High school.

Misses Mayme and Jennie Kuchnowski are visiting friends in different points in Minnesota, including Minneapolis and Red Wing, to remain a couple of weeks.

Miss Mary Kursevski of New London is spending this week in the city as a guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. P. C. Koehl, and among other relatives and friends.

Miss Elizabeth Rait, for several years a teacher in the schools at San Antonio, Texas, is spending part of the summer vacation with her sister, Miss Agnes Rait in this city.

Mrs. W. F. Tompkins of Couer d'Alene, Idaho, arrived in the city the last of the week for an extended visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Arneson, on the West Side.

Mrs. Wm. Smith, who had been visiting a few weeks with her father, Wm. Dowsett, and sisters, Mrs. E. W. Sellers and Miss Gertrude Dowsett, leaves here tomorrow for her home at Elkhart, Ind.

Mrs. H. E. Doyle of Fond du Lac visited at the home of Gilbert Beck, in this city, for a couple of days previous to Tuesday, accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Beck, Mrs. Alois Miller and Mrs. Ellen Carpenter back from an auto trip to that place.

Miss Mabel Manning Wedge of New York arrived Sunday, and is visiting Miss Hattie R. Hein. Miss Wedge will render the vocal selections at the Hein-Wedge concert to be given here Thursday evening and at Grand Rapids, Friday evening.

John Kurka, who for several years was head clerk in I. Brill's Son's store in this city, but has been with the Continental at Green Bay for a long time, came over last Sunday morning to spend several hours at the home of his cousin, Mrs. F. M. Glennon.

Mrs. A. R. Horn, who now lives with her daughter, Mrs. Hallie Luce, at Minneapolis, visited among friends in this city Monday night while returning from a two months' stay in southwestern Wisconsin. She was called to Juneau by the illness and death of her mother, who passed away last month at the age of 88 years.

Arthur Pagel of Wausau, a half-brother of Herman H. and Ernest H. Pagel of this city, while suffering from illness due to overwork, shot himself with fatal results last Monday forenoon. He was sick with brain fever and congestion of the liver and stomach when he so abruptly ended his days. The young man was only 20 years of age.

Misses Mary and Helen Fierek have returned from a two weeks' visit in Chicago and Deater, Ill., and Indianapolis, Ind. They were accompanied back by their little niece and nephew, Mary Jane and Edward Fierek of Indianapolis, who will remain here for a month, when their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fierek, will arrive to accompany them home.

The Harmonia Society of St. Peter's congregation, who were hosts at a picnic given near the water works pumping station a week ago last Sunday, not only entertained their friends right royally but made a large sum of money with which to buy books for the parochial school. The total receipts were nearly $700 and after deducting necessary expenses they had a balance of $495.

The unpleasant news comes from Cheney, Wash., that Fred C. Walker, better known while here as "Ted" Walker, is in a very precarious condition at his home at that place. Mr. Walker is a brother of Mrs. E. W. Langenberg of this city, graduated from the Stevens Point Normal in 1905, after which he taught school at North Fond du Lac before removing to the far west.

Rev. John A. Stemen returned on Monday from a ten days' outing at the Carr Lake resort conducted by M. E. Means near Hazelhurst. Mr. Stemen went fishing between showers and caught some good sized bass and other fish, which inhabit the many lakes in that vicinity. He also enjoyed a good rest at this ideal resort. Regular services will be resumed at the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

While on her recent visit to Lady-smith, Mrs. Amos Wilson of this city met with an accident that has since caused her considerable discomfort. She was walking along the street with a lady friend when one end of a loose plank flew up, tripping Mrs. Wilson and she fell on the cement walk just ahead. A cartilage in her knee was broken and as the lady is not as young as she used to be, the injury heals very slowly.

Mrs. Benj. Hutchinson of Milladore spent last night as a guest at Wm. Wienholt's home on Strong's avenue. She left this morning for Milwaukee, where Mr. Hutchinson will join her, and they will then proceed east to Maine for a visit among scenes of childhood days. M. Hutchinson may decide to spend the winter in Florida. This couple sold their farm near Milladore last week and plan on buying a home in Stevens Point next spring.

IT'S A MISTAKE

to think training isn't a factor—a very important factor in taking proper care of one's future.

Many people have money left to them but lack the special training needed to properly care for it—it gets away.

If YOU expect to have money left to you later in life you will need training in order to be able to give your interests the vigilant care they will demand if you are to hold your own or build for a larger success.

This training is only acquired by actual practice. No other method for training is so good, so business-like, so safe as the Bank Account method. Start YOUR training NOW by coming in and opening an account with us—one dollar will get you started—add to it as you can. We pay three per cent. on savings. All business confidential.

First National Bank

OF STEVENS POINT, WIS.

CAPITAL - - - $100,000

Established in 1883

U. S. Depository

Wanted---Bolts

BASSWOOD or POPLAR

also JACK PINE

Bolts to be cut 37 to 55 inches in length, not less than 5 inches in diameter. Write for information to Marinette-Green Bay Manfg. Co.

P. O. Box 504 GREEN BAY, WIS.

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400 Phone 400

Phone 400 Phone 4

THROW OUT THE LINE

Give Them Help and Many Stevens Point People Will Be Happy.

"Throw Out the Life Line"
The kidneys need help.
They're overworked—can't get the poison filtered out of the blood.
They're getting worse every minute.
Will you help them?

Doan's Kidney Pills have brought thousands of kidney sufferers back from the verge of despair.
Stevens Point testimony proves their worth.

Mrs. W. H. Allen, 831 Ellis street, Stevens Point Wis., says: My back often became lame and I had other symptoms of weak kidneys. When Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention, I got a supply from Taylor's drug store and it was not long before they restored me to good health. Another member of my family who was similarly afflicted, used Doan's Kidney Pills and was cured. We publicly endorsed this remedy in 1907 and are now glad to do so again.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agent for the U. S.

Remember the name—DOANS—and take no other.

ESTABLISHED AUG. 1, 1883.
First National Bank
OF STEVENS POINT, WIS.
UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY.
CAPITAL - $100,000.00

A. R. WEEK, Pres. R. L. KRAUS, V. P.
J. W. DUNEGAN, Cashier.
Directors: A. R. WEEK, C. D. McFarland, W. D. Connor, P. J. Jacobs, J. W. Dunegan, R. L. Kraus, H. H. Pagen.

Accounts of manufacturing and mercantile firms and individuals solicited, which we will extend every favor consistent with safe banking. Prompt and careful attention given to all the interests of our customers. Sell drafts and letters of credit on every important city in the world. Interest paid on time deposits.
Collections made on all accessible points. Safety deposit boxes to rent at reasonable rates. We invite correspondence or personal interview.

CITY MEAT MARKET

EMIL G. RETLACH, Prop.

—dealer in—

Fresh and Cured Meats

419 Main Street

STEVENS POINT WIS.

ELLIOTT L. MARTIN,

Expert Piano & Organ Tuner

Address, 114 Third Street,

STEVENS POINT, WIS.

Langenberg Brick Mfg. Co.

Manufacturers and dealers in all kinds of Red Pressed, Building and Fire

BRICK.

Also dealers in

White Lime, Plastering Hair Adamant

Wall Plaster, Stuccos, Cements, &c.

Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge, and orders from abroad promptly attended to. Write for our price list.

Telephone No. 82

Main Street Stevens Point, Wis.

Legal Blanks

The following legal blanks are for sale at THE GAZETTE office in quantities to suit:

TEACHERS' CONTRACTS

RENEWAL of Chattel Mortgage

FARM OPTIONS.

LAND CONTRACTS

SATISFACTION OF MORTGAGE.

REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE,

(Long and Short Form)

CHattel NOTES, (2 forms)

APPLICATION FOR TAX

DEED.

CHattel MORTGAGE

JUSTICE'S SUMMONS.

GARNISHEE SUMMONS.

WARRANTY DEED.

CIRCUIT COURT SUMMONS.

WARRANT OF SEIZURE.

For prices, etc., call on or address

THE GAZETTE,

STEVENS POINT, WIS.

LUNG DISEASE

"After four in our family had died of consumption I was taken with a frightful cough and lung trouble, but my life was saved and I gained 87 pounds through using

DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY

W. R. Patterson, Wellington, Tex.

PRICE 60c and $1.00 AT ALL DRUGGISTS.

Perhaps the Republicans, as represented by Taft, are satisfied with the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill. But the majority of the voters are not.

"Ingersoll sought to disprove Bible truths and to assail Holy Writ by the same methods which the Republicans are seeking to assail Governor Wilson."

The average business man has awakened to the fact that it is a good investment to give some of his time to political affairs. This is one of Democracy's best signs of victory.

Wilson STANDS ON HIS RECORD

Josephus Daniels Invites Close Study of Writings.

SLANDER WON'T WIN NOW.

Chairman of Democratic Publicity Bureau Points Out Errors of Campaigns of Previous Years and Finds a Good Moral—Roosevelt Also Wrote Books and Made Bitter Attacks on Various Men and Classes.

New York.—Josephus Daniels, chairman of the publicity committee of the Democratic national committee, said today:

"Eight years ago during the presidential campaign of 1904 I came to New York, and being a member of the Democratic national committee, I dropped in at the headquarters of the committee. I found the literary bureau of the committee very actively engaged in perusing the volumes of Theodore Roosevelt. When I saw on every desk 'The Winning of the West,' 'The Life of Thomas H. Benton' and a half dozen others of the works of the then Republican nominee for president I wondered whether or not I had got into the right place.

"I was immediately set aright, however, when I was informed that the literary young men were engaged in culling from those books some of the many denunciations and bitter criticisms and attacks made by Theodore Roosevelt upon public men and measures and his aspersions upon great representative bodies of our people, such as workmen and farmers.

"I found them preparing to send forth broadcast all over the land such excerpts from the writing of Theodore Roosevelt as:

"Cowboys are much better fellows and pleasanter companions than small farmers or agricultural laborers, nor are the mechanics and workmen of a great city to be mentioned in the same breath."

"Mr. Bryan and his adherents have appealed to the basest set in the land—the farmers."

"They (workmen who object to government by injunction) are not in sympathy with men of good minds and sound civic morality."

Hits Quakers Too.

"They quoted from what he said about the Quakers, that those who would not fight were traitors to their country."

"They said that when the farmers and workmen and the Quakers came to know what Theodore Roosevelt had written about them they would rise up with wrath and indignation and bury Theodore Roosevelt beneath an avalanche of votes. They said that Roosevelt would not answer that exposure of his views, and of course, he never did. I agreed with them that it was the proper thing to do to herald these utterances through the country."

"As to whether or not that sort of campaigning had any effect the result of the campaign eight years ago speaks for itself."

"The Republican party is attempting to do today the same sort of thing that the Democrats tried in 1908. The Democrats out-Rodenberged Mr. Rodenberg. They were eight years ahead of him in this sort of thing. It didn't work with us then, and it will not work with them now."

Stands on His Record.

"The attempt to attack Governor Wilson because of certain statements which he made in writing history and in commenting upon events of history as they appeared to him as historian will fail signally. As one great metropolitan newspaper pointed out, Mr. Rodenberg and his kind are simply 'Blowing against the wind.' Governor Wilson is running for president on his record as a public man, and with that record the public is fairly well conversant, and it will continue to learn more as the campaign progresses."

"He is running for president on his record as governor of New Jersey—what he said and did in that capacity rather than what he wrote as a historian, chronicling events and commenting upon them as they appeared to an impartial observer whose duty it is to write of things as they are rather than as they should be or as he would have them."

"Our Republican brethren are entitled to all the thunder they can make out of Governor Wilson's writings. I hope they will read them carefully and thoroughly. They will be able to gain a great deal of valuable information, and when the context is read along with the excerpts which have been taken from his works for the purpose of placing him in a false light I have no fear as to the results. All that is needed is a thorough understanding."

"Ingersoll sought to disprove Bible truths and to assail Holy Writ by the same methods which the Republicans are seeking to assail Governor Wilson."

The average business man has awakened to the fact that it is a good investment to give some of his time to political affairs. This is one of Democracy's best signs of victory.

Perhaps the Republicans, as represented by Taft, are satisfied with the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill. But the majority of the voters are not.

Wilson STANDS ON HIS RECORD

Josephus Daniels Invites Close Study of Writings.

SLANDER WON'T WIN NOW.

Chairman of Democratic Publicity Bureau Points Out Errors of Campaigns of Previous Years and Finds a Good Moral—Roosevelt Also Wrote Books and Made Bitter Attacks on Various Men and Classes.

New York.—Josephus Daniels, chairman of the publicity committee of the Democratic national committee, said today:

"Eight years ago during the presidential campaign of 1904 I came to New York, and being a member of the Democratic national committee, I dropped in at the headquarters of the committee. I found the literary bureau of the committee very actively engaged in perusing the volumes of Theodore Roosevelt. When I saw on every desk 'The Winning of the West,' 'The Life of Thomas H. Benton' and a half dozen others of the works of the then Republican nominee for president I wondered whether or not I had got into the right place.

"I was immediately set aright, however, when I was informed that the literary young men were engaged in culling from those books some of the many denunciations and bitter criticisms and attacks made by Theodore Roosevelt upon public men and measures and his aspersions upon great representative bodies of our people, such as workmen and farmers.

"I found them preparing to send forth broadcast all over the land such excerpts from the writing of Theodore Roosevelt as:

"Cowboys are much better fellows and pleasanter companions than small farmers or agricultural laborers, nor are the mechanics and workmen of a great city to be mentioned in the same breath."

"Mr. Bryan and his adherents have appealed to the basest set in the land—the farmers."

"They (workmen who object to government by injunction) are not in sympathy with men of good minds and sound civic morality."

Hits Quakers Too.

"They quoted from what he said about the Quakers, that those who would not fight were traitors to their country."

"They said that when the farmers and workmen and the Quakers came to know what Theodore Roosevelt had written about them they would rise up with wrath and indignation and bury Theodore Roosevelt beneath an avalanche of votes. They said that Roosevelt would not answer that exposure of his views, and of course, he never did. I agreed with them that it was the proper thing to do to herald these utterances through the country."

"As to whether or not that sort of campaigning had any effect the result of the campaign eight years ago speaks for itself."

"The Republican party is attempting to do today the same sort of thing that the Democrats tried in 1908. The Democrats out-Rodenberged Mr. Rodenberg. They were eight years ahead of him in this sort of thing. It didn't work with us then, and it will not work with them now."

Stands on His Record.

"The attempt to attack Governor Wilson because of certain statements which he made in writing history and in commenting upon events of history as they appeared to him as historian will fail signally. As one great metropolitan newspaper pointed out, Mr. Rodenberg and his kind are simply 'Blowing against the wind.' Governor Wilson is running for president on his record as a public man, and with that record the public is fairly well conversant, and it will continue to learn more as the campaign progresses."

"He is running for president on his record as governor of New Jersey—what he said and did in that capacity rather than what he wrote as a historian, chronicling events and commenting upon them as they appeared to an impartial observer whose duty it is to write of things as they are rather than as they should be or as he would have them."

"Our Republican brethren are entitled to all the thunder they can make out of Governor Wilson's writings. I hope they will read them carefully and thoroughly. They will be able to gain a great deal of valuable information, and when the context is read along with the excerpts which have been taken from his works for the purpose of placing him in a false light I have no fear as to the results. All that is needed is a thorough understanding."

"Ingersoll sought to disprove Bible truths and to assail Holy Writ by the same methods which the Republicans are seeking to assail Governor Wilson."

The average business man has awakened to the fact that it is a good investment to give some of his time to political affairs. This is one of Democracy's best signs of victory.

Perhaps the Republicans, as represented by Taft, are satisfied with the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill. But the majority of the voters are not.

Wilson STANDS ON HIS RECORD

Josephus Daniels Invites Close Study of Writings.

SLANDER WON'T WIN NOW.

Chairman of Democratic Publicity Bureau Points Out Errors of Campaigns of Previous Years and Finds a Good Moral—Roosevelt Also Wrote Books and Made Bitter Attacks on Various Men and Classes.

New York.—Josephus Daniels, chairman of the publicity committee of the Democratic national committee, said today:

"Eight years ago during the presidential campaign of 1904 I came to New York, and being a member of the Democratic national committee, I dropped in at the headquarters of the committee. I found the literary bureau of the committee very actively engaged in perusing the volumes of Theodore Roosevelt. When I saw on every desk 'The Winning of the West,' 'The Life of Thomas H. Benton' and a half dozen others of the works of the then Republican nominee for president I wondered whether or not I had got into the right place.

"I was immediately set aright, however, when I was informed that the literary young men were engaged in culling from those books some of the many denunciations and bitter criticisms and attacks made by Theodore Roosevelt upon public men and measures and his aspersions upon great representative bodies of our people, such as workmen and farmers.

"I found them preparing to send forth broadcast all over the land such excerpts from the writing of Theodore Roosevelt as:

"Cowboys are much better fellows and pleasanter companions than small farmers or agricultural laborers, nor are the mechanics and workmen of a great city to be mentioned in the same breath."

"Mr. Bryan and his adherents have appealed to the basest set in the land—the farmers."

"They (workmen who object to government by injunction) are not in sympathy with men of good minds and sound civic morality."

Hits Quakers Too.

"They quoted from what he said about the Quakers, that those who would not fight were traitors to their country."

"They said that when the farmers and workmen and the Quakers came to know what Theodore Roosevelt had written about them they would rise up with wrath and indignation and bury Theodore Roosevelt beneath an avalanche of votes. They said that Roosevelt would not answer that exposure of his views, and of course, he never did. I agreed with them that it was the proper thing to do to herald these utterances through the country."

"As to whether or not that sort of campaigning had any effect the result of the campaign eight years ago speaks for itself."

"The Republican party is attempting to do today the same sort of thing that the Democrats tried in 1908. The Democrats out-Rodenberged Mr. Rodenberg. They were eight years ahead of him in this sort of thing. It didn't work with us then, and it will not work with them now."

Stands on His Record.

"The attempt to attack Governor Wilson because of certain statements which he made in writing history and in commenting upon events of history as they appeared to him as historian will fail signally. As one great metropolitan newspaper pointed out, Mr. Rodenberg and his kind are simply 'Blowing against the wind.' Governor Wilson is running for president on his record as a public man, and with that record the public is fairly well conversant, and it will continue to learn more as the campaign progresses."

"He is running for president on his record as governor of New Jersey—what he said and did in that capacity rather than what he wrote as a historian, chronicling events and commenting upon them as they appeared to an impartial observer whose duty it is to write of things as they are rather than as they should be or as he would have them."

"Our Republican brethren are entitled to all the thunder they can make out of Governor Wilson's writings. I hope they will read them carefully and thoroughly. They will be able to gain a great deal of valuable information, and when the context is read along with the excerpts which have been taken from his works for the purpose of placing him in a false light I have no fear as to the results. All that is needed is a thorough understanding."

"Ingersoll sought to disprove Bible truths and to assail Holy Writ by the same methods which the Republicans are seeking to assail Governor Wilson."

The average business man has awakened to the fact that it is a good investment to give some of his time to political affairs. This is one of Democracy's best signs of victory.

Perhaps the Republicans, as represented by Taft, are satisfied with the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill. But the majority of the voters are not.

Wilson STANDS ON HIS RECORD

Josephus Daniels Invites Close Study of Writings.

SLANDER WON'T WIN NOW.

Chairman of Democratic Publicity Bureau Points Out Errors of Campaigns of Previous Years and Finds a Good Moral—Roosevelt Also Wrote Books and Made Bitter Attacks on Various Men and Classes.

New York.—Josephus Daniels, chairman of the publicity committee of the Democratic national committee, said today:

"Eight years ago during the presidential campaign of 1904 I came to New York, and being a member of the Democratic national committee, I dropped in at the headquarters of the committee. I found the literary bureau of the committee very actively engaged in perusing the volumes of Theodore Roosevelt. When I saw on every desk 'The Winning of the West,' 'The Life of Thomas H. Benton' and a half dozen others of the works of the then Republican nominee for president I wondered whether or not I had got into the right place.

"I was immediately set aright, however, when I was informed that the literary young men were engaged in culling from those books some of the many denunciations and bitter criticisms and attacks made by Theodore Roosevelt upon public men and measures and his aspersions upon great representative bodies of our people, such as workmen and farmers.

"I found them preparing to send forth broadcast all over the land such excerpts from the writing of Theodore Roosevelt as:

"Cowboys are much better fellows and pleasanter companions than small farmers or agricultural laborers, nor are the mechanics and workmen of a great city to be mentioned in the same breath."

"Mr. Bryan and his adherents have appealed to the basest set in the land—the farmers."

"They (workmen who object to government by injunction) are not in sympathy with men of good minds and sound civic morality."

Hits Quakers Too.

"They quoted from what he said about the Quakers, that those who would not fight were traitors to their country."

"They said that when the farmers and workmen and the Quakers came to know what Theodore Roosevelt had written about them they would rise up with wrath and indignation and bury Theodore Roosevelt beneath an avalanche of votes. They said that Roosevelt would not answer that exposure of his views, and of course, he never did. I agreed with them that it was the proper thing to do to herald these utterances through the country."

"As to whether or not that sort of campaigning had any effect the result of the campaign eight years ago speaks for itself."

"The Republican party is attempting to do today the same sort of thing that the Democrats tried in 1908. The Democrats out-Rodenberged Mr. Rodenberg. They were eight years ahead of him in this sort of thing. It didn't work with us then, and it will not work with them now."

Stands on His Record.

"The attempt to attack Governor Wilson because of certain statements which he made in writing history and in commenting upon events of history as they appeared to him as historian will fail signally. As one great metropolitan newspaper pointed out, Mr. Rodenberg and his kind are simply 'Blowing against the wind.' Governor Wilson is running for president on his record as a public man, and with that record the public is fairly well conversant, and it will continue to learn more as the campaign progresses."

"He is running for president on his record as governor of New Jersey—what he said and did in that capacity rather than what he wrote as a historian, chronicling events and commenting upon them as they appeared to an impartial observer whose duty it is to write of things as they are rather than as they should be or as he would have them."

"Our Republican brethren are entitled to all the thunder they can make out of Governor Wilson's writings. I hope they will read them carefully and thoroughly. They will be able to gain a great deal of valuable information, and when the context is read along with the excerpts which have been taken from his works for the purpose of placing him in a false light I have no fear as to the results. All that is needed is a thorough understanding."

"Ingersoll sought to disprove Bible truths and to assail Holy Writ by the same methods which the Republicans are seeking to assail Governor Wilson."

The average business man has awakened to the fact that it is a good investment to give some of his time to political affairs. This is one of Democracy's best signs of victory.

Perhaps the Republicans, as represented by Taft, are satisfied with the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill. But the majority of the voters are not.

Wilson STANDS ON HIS RECORD

Josephus Daniels Invites Close Study of Writings.

SLANDER WON'T WIN NOW.

Chairman of Democratic Publicity Bureau Points Out Errors of Campaigns of Previous Years and Finds a Good Moral—Roosevelt Also Wrote Books and Made Bitter Attacks on Various Men and Classes.

New York.—Josephus Daniels, chairman of the publicity committee of the Democratic national committee, said today:

"Eight years ago during the presidential campaign of 1904 I came to New York, and being a member of the Democratic national committee, I dropped in at the headquarters of the committee. I found the literary bureau of the committee very actively engaged in perusing the volumes of Theodore Roosevelt. When I saw on every desk 'The Winning of the West,' 'The Life of Thomas H. Benton' and a half dozen others of the works of the then Republican nominee for president I wondered whether or not I had got into the right place.

"I was immediately set aright, however, when I was informed that the literary young men were engaged in culling from those books some of the many denunciations and bitter criticisms and attacks made by Theodore Roosevelt upon public men and measures and his aspersions upon great representative bodies of our people, such as workmen and farmers.

"I found them preparing to send forth broadcast all over the land such excerpts from the writing of Theodore Roosevelt as:

"Cowboys are much better fellows and pleasanter companions than small farmers or agricultural laborers, nor are the mechanics and workmen of a great city to be mentioned in the same breath."

"Mr. Bryan and his adherents have appealed to the basest set in the land—the farmers."

"They (workmen who object to government by injunction) are not in sympathy with men of good minds and sound civic morality."

Hits Quakers Too.

"They quoted from what he said about the Quakers, that those who would not fight were traitors to their country."

"They said that when the farmers and workmen and the Quakers came to know what Theodore Roosevelt had written about them they would rise up with wrath and indignation and bury Theodore Roosevelt beneath an avalanche of votes. They said that Roosevelt would not answer that exposure of his views, and of course, he never did. I agreed with them that it was the proper thing to do to herald these utterances through the country."

"As to whether or not that sort of campaigning had any effect the result of the campaign eight years ago speaks for itself."

"The Republican party is attempting to do today the same sort of thing that the Democrats tried in 1908. The Democrats out-Rodenberged Mr. Rodenberg. They were eight years ahead of him in this sort of thing. It didn't work with us then, and it will not work with them now."

Stands on His Record.

"The attempt to attack Governor Wilson because of certain statements which he made in writing history and in commenting upon events of history as they appeared to him as historian will fail signally. As one great metropolitan newspaper pointed out, Mr. Rodenberg and his kind are simply 'Blowing against the wind.' Governor Wilson is running for president on his record as a public man, and with that record the public is fairly well conversant, and it will continue to learn more as the campaign progresses."

"He is running for president on his record as governor of New Jersey—what he said and did in that capacity rather than what he wrote as a historian, chronicling events and commenting upon them as they appeared to an impartial observer whose duty it is to write of things as they are rather than as they should be or as he would have them."

"Our Republican brethren are entitled to all the thunder they can make out of Governor Wilson's writings. I hope they will read them carefully and thoroughly. They will be able to gain a great deal of valuable information, and when the context is read along with the excerpts which have been taken from his works for the purpose of placing him in a false light I have no fear as to the results. All that is needed is a thorough understanding."

"Ingersoll sought to disprove Bible truths and to assail Holy Writ by the same methods which the Republicans are seeking to assail Governor Wilson."

The average business man has awakened to the fact that it is a good investment to give some of his time to political affairs. This is one of Democracy's best signs of victory.

Perhaps the Republicans, as represented by Taft, are satisfied with the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill. But the majority of the voters are not.

Wilson STANDS ON HIS RECORD

Josephus Daniels Invites Close Study of Writings.

SLANDER WON'T WIN NOW.

Chairman of Democratic Publicity Bureau Points Out Errors of Campaigns of Previous Years and Finds a Good Moral—Roosevelt Also Wrote Books and Made Bitter Attacks on Various Men and Classes.

New York.—Josephus Daniels, chairman of the publicity committee of the Democratic national committee, said today:

"Eight years ago during the presidential campaign of 1904 I came to New York, and being a member of the Democratic national committee, I dropped in at the headquarters of the committee. I found the literary bureau of the committee very actively engaged in perusing the volumes of Theodore Roosevelt. When I saw on every desk 'The Winning of the West,' 'The Life of Thomas H. Benton' and a half dozen others of the works of the then Republican nominee for president I wondered whether or not I had got into the right place.

"I was immediately set aright, however, when I was informed that the literary young men were engaged in culling from those books some of the many denunciations and bitter criticisms and attacks made by Theodore Roosevelt upon public men and measures and his aspersions upon great representative bodies of our people, such as workmen and farmers.

"I found them preparing to send forth broadcast all over the land such excerpts from the writing of Theodore Roosevelt as:

"Cowboys are much better fellows and pleasanter companions than small farmers or agricultural laborers, nor are the mechanics and workmen of a great city to be mentioned in the same breath."

"Mr. Bryan and his adherents have appealed to the basest set in the land—the farmers."

"They (workmen who object to government by injunction) are not in sympathy with men of good minds and sound civic morality."

Hits Quakers Too.

"They quoted from what he said about the Quakers, that those who would not fight were traitors to their country."

"They said that when the farmers and workmen and the Quakers came to know what Theodore Roosevelt had written about them they would rise up with wrath and indignation and bury Theodore Roosevelt beneath an avalanche of votes. They said that Roosevelt would not answer that exposure of his views, and of course, he never did. I agreed with them that it was the proper thing to do to herald these utterances through the country."

"As to whether or not that sort of campaigning had any effect the result of the campaign eight years ago speaks for itself."

"The Republican party is attempting to do today the same sort of thing that the Democrats tried in 1908. The Democrats out-Rodenberged Mr. Rodenberg. They were eight years ahead of him in this sort of thing. It didn't work with us then, and it will not work with them now."

Stands on His Record.

"The attempt to attack Governor Wilson because of certain statements which he made in writing history and in commenting upon events of history as they appeared to him as historian will fail signally. As one great metropolitan newspaper pointed out, Mr. Rodenberg and his kind are simply 'Blowing against the wind.' Governor Wilson is running for president on his record as a public man, and with that record the public is fairly well conversant, and it will continue to learn more as the campaign progresses."

HARD FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

It's hard enough to keep house if in perfect health, but a woman who is weak, tired and suffering all of the time with an aching back has a heavy burden to carry. Any woman in this condition has good cause to suspect kidney trouble, especially if the kidney action seems disordered at all. Doan's Kidney Pills have cured thousands of women suffering in this way. It is the best-recommended special kidney remedy.

A NEBRASKA CASE:

Mrs. Mary H. Blaxter, Gordon, Neb., says: "I had sharp aching pains all through my body and I got down my back became so lame I had to grasp some thing for support. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me entirely and improved my condition in every way."

Get Doan's at any Drug Store, 50c. a Box

Doan's Kidney Pills

MAGIC WONDER REMEDY. The wonderful 20th century remedy for Rheumatism, Neuritis, Toothache and all aches and pains, positive cure, used externally. 21 pp. Eagle Cure Co., 10 Exchange Bldg., Box 165, Indianapolis.

Kind Man.

A local philanthropist ordered a fan for himself, a nice electric buzzer. He also took the key out of the door so that some of the air could go through the keyhole into the adjoining room, where there are eight perspiring clerks.

Case of Mistaken Identity.

President Taft was out for his afternoon walk in Washington one day when a flaxen-haired little girl ran out in front of him, held up her finger and exclaimed, in a shrill voice: "I know who you are!"

The president, thinking it not at all unusual that she should possess this information, but willing to gratify her, asked:

"Well, who am I?"

"Aw," she said teasingly, "you're Humpty Dumpty."—Popular Magazine.

The Other Way 'Round.

A good little story, long current in England, is just now gaining American circulation. It has for leading characters Rudyard Kipling and Dorothy Drew, Mr. Gladstone's little grandchild. Kipling was visiting Hawarden, and, being fond of children, devoted himself to little Miss Dorothy until her anxious mother expressed the hope that the child had not been wearying the great author.

"Oh, no, mamma," spoke up Dorothy, before any one else had a chance to say anything, "but you have no idea how Mr. Kipling has been wearying me!"

INTERESTED IN HIM.

Natica—You aren't thinking of marrying Reggy, are you?

Evelyn—Of course I am. Hasn't he a future?

Natica—Yes, to be sure. But why jeopardize it?

"That's Good"

Is often said of

Post Toasties

when eaten with cream or rich milk and a sprinkle of sugar if desired.

That's the cue for housekeepers who want to please the whole family.

Post Toasties are ready to serve direct from the package—

Convenient Economical Delicious

"The Memory Lingers"

Sold by Grocers.

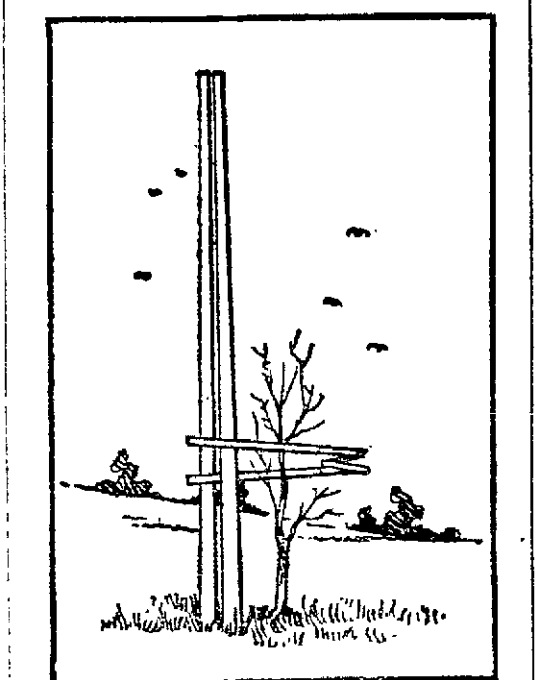

Postum Cereal Company, Limited, Battle Creek, Mich.

HORTICULTURE

GOOD SUPPORTER FOR PLANTS

Florida Man Contrives Standard With Wire Arms That Guides Growth of Young Trees.

For the support of plants and young trees during the period when they are getting a start in life a Florida man has designed the contrivance reproduced here.

Supporter for Plants.

A standard with longitudinal grooves on the opposite faces of its two sections is thrust into the ground near the tree. A length of wire, bent into a coil at the center and forming two arms, is attached to the standard by rolled ends that engage the grooves. These arms can be slid up or down the standard to accommodate the height of the plant. The latter is embraced by these two arms and not only is forced to grow straight, but is given much-needed support during the heavy rains and wind storms that beat so many unsupported plants and young vegetation of all kinds to the earth.

SOME LITTLE FLOWER HINTS

Care Should Be Used in Taking Up Plants to Place in Window—Get Cuttings in Favorites.

In taking up plants to put in the window, be careful about the roots. If they are maltreated in any way, be sure to cut off all the bruised parts and shorten in a corresponding way the top branches of the plant.

Newly potted plants sometimes do not do well at first. Don't expect too much of your plants until they are well established. As soon as new feeding roots are formed the plant will pick up. Maybe you have given too much water which has soured the soil. Water only when the surface of the soil feels dry to the touch.

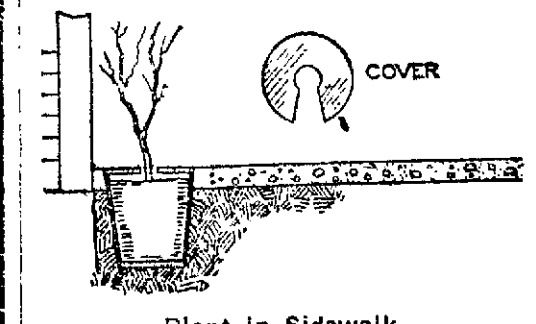

If you have a large east window turn it into a bower of beauty. Fasten a strong shelf below the sill and nail a wire arch or grill across the top of the window. When you dig your Madera vine select several large, healthy roots and put two or three in a six-inch pot. Place a pot at each end of the shelf. As the vines grow furnish them with string or narrow wire netting to grow on. They will soon reach the top of the window and cover the arch.

Go into the garden before Jack Frost appears and take cuttings of all your favorites. Slip a nasturtium for winter blooming. The double nasturtium roots easily and is a desirable pot plant.

PLANT IN CEMENT SIDEWALK

Good, Cleanly Way of Arranging Pot or Keg Out of Sight Is Shown in the Illustration.

The pot holding a plant or vine at the entrance of a residence in a crowded city is usually in the way, and when the plant is watered the walks become wet, says the Popular Mechanics. The illustration shows a good, cleanly way of arranging a pot or keg in the walk, so that it is out of sight, and the seeping water will be taken up by the earth. A cover may be made for the pot as shown.

Plant in Sidewalk.

Stable Manure in Orchard.

The value of stable manure or other fertilizer in the orchard depends almost entirely upon the conditions of the soil and climate. Some soils grow excellent fruit without any fertilizer, while others must be fed. Simply a case of science and good judgment.

Fruit Varieties.

The farmer who raises fruit for his own family should have a much larger variety than the commercial orchardist, because the latter must produce enough of each kind to ship to advantage.

WAY TO SPRAY STRAWBERRIES

Leaf Blight Causes Spots on Leaves and Weakens Plants—Remedy for Leaf Roller.

(By W. H. CHANDLER)

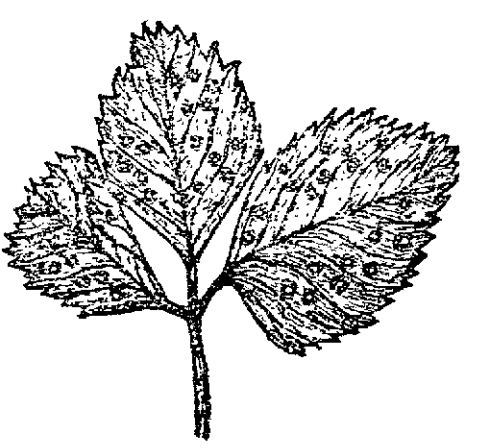

Leaf blight is a disease which causes spots on strawberry leaves. With some varieties it very seriously weakens the plants. Varieties like Aroma and Gaudy very largely resist it.

Spray with Bordeaux mixture after the crop is harvested, probably after renewing has been done, and give three or four sprayings at intervals of two weeks. On badly infested beds after the crop is off, mow everything down and let it dry and burn off when there is a brisk wind, then follow with a spraying.

The strawberry leaf roller is a moth that appears in the spring, depositing eggs on the leaves. When the eggs hatch, the larvae feed upon the leaves, folding the leaves over and fastening them by means of a silken thread. They thus eat only on the inner side of this folded leaf. They sometimes seriously injure the plants, causing them to dry up. There are two broods a year. The second brood appears shortly after the strawberries have been gathered.

The surest remedy for this insect is to mow down the plants and weeds and burn the bed off shortly after the strawberries have been picked. Spraying when the berries are about one-half grown with arsenical poison will kill the insect, but it is difficult to spray strawberries as they are so soon ripe after they set. The burning off process recommended does not seem to be entirely harmless to the strawberry field, as occasionally some plants will be killed and it will thus be more difficult to secure a good row for the next year.

The white grub that bothers us in the garden sometimes may be a fairly troublesome insect in the strawberry field. The insect feeds upon the roots of some plants, especially grasses.

Leaf Showing Injury.

When the field is plowed up, if they are numerous they may feed upon the strawberry root and do considerable harm.

The remedy is to grow some other crop than grass or strawberries on the land until they are starved out.

The Crown Borer is a beetle somewhat similar to the Plum Curculio. They deposit their eggs in June or early July. The eggs hatch into larvae that eat their way into the crown and there in feeding, mine out the crown more or less.

These beetles do not migrate very badly, so the best remedy is to rotate the crop, putting no strawberries on land that has been in strawberries during the previous few years, provided these insects are serious.

For Tree Planting.

If you intend to plant a few choice trees next spring dig large holes for them this fall, fill them with manure, removing it next spring and filling in up to the desired depth for the tree.

HORTICULTURAL NOTES

Most small fruits form their fruit buds in the spring.

The quickest growing tree for a shelter belt is the willow.

Remember that the wood ashes are the best kind of fertilizer for the orchard, lawn or garden.

The city dealer profits by the laziness of the grower by grading and repacking his badly assorted fruit.

Young fruit trees that were planted in the autumn of last year, or in the spring of this year, should be examined carefully.

That corky old apple, the Ben Davis, still holds a high place in the city markets because its fine appearance deceives the ignorant buyer.

In very dry weather fruit buds are formed quite early and in case of a wet fall immature fruit buds sometimes change into leaf buds.

Unless rotten apples are promptly removed from the orchard, fruit pests will have an ideal place in which to hibernate during the winter months.

After the raspberries are through fruiting, the old canes are taken out. The canes made this year will produce the fruit next year. Burn the prunings.

Cantaloupes should not be grown near squash, pumpkin of cucumber vines, as the pollen will mix, giving the cantaloupes a flavor of the squash or cucumber.

Spray the apples twice with Bordeaux mixture to prevent injury from bitter rot. Put arsenate of lead in it to destroy late-hatched insects, such as the fall web worm.

Spraying with kerosene emulsion is one of the best remedies for the rose leaf hopper. Make the first application as the pest first appears and repeat as often as is necessary.

Strawberry plants that have been grown all summer in pots and set this month will bear next spring. Use an abundance of manure in preparing the ground, to insure a good crop.

WILLING HE SHOULD GO FAR

One Man to Have Kid Transferred, but He May Have Had a Grouch.

"What do you think of this scheme of having the countries exchange children?" asked the Sewickley man.

"I don't think anything about it," said the Wilkesburg man. "What is the idea?"

"An English family, for instance, exchanges children for a couple of years with a German family. References are first exchanged and all that sort of thing."

"I see."

"Thus both sets of children get a chance to learn another language and get acquainted with another country. It's quite a scheme."

"It's an elegant scheme," declared the Wilkesburg man. "My neighbors have a kid that I would like to see exchanged with some family in Siberia."

CHILD'S FACE ALL RED SPOTS

632 N. 5th St., Terre Haute, Ind.—"My little nephew, a boy of four years, had a breaking out on his face. It was little red spots at first, then he would rub and scratch and water blisters would form, and wherever the water would run another would come until his face was covered with them. He would cry and fret. His mother got some medicine, but it did not do any good. He would scream and cry and say it hurt. We hardly knew him, his little face was all red spots and blisters. So I begged him to let me put some Cuticura Ointment on them. The next morning I made a strong soap suds with Cuticura Soap and washed his face in the warm suds. The little blisters burst by pressing the cloth on them. After I had his face washed, I put the Cuticura Ointment on and in a short time his little face was all red and dry. I kept using the Cuticura Soap and putting on the Cuticura Ointment and his face got as well and it did not leave a scar. He was entirely cured in about one week and a half." (Signed) Mrs. Arthur Haworth, Jan. 10, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 32p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston."

How He Left.

The servants were discussing the matter below stairs.

"Master and mistress had something of a row last night, I hear," said the butler ponderously.

"You should have heard 'em," answered the parlour maid in a shocked tone. "Scandalous is what I call it!"

"They tell me 'e ran out, cranked 'is motor car and left in it."

"No," said the maid, positively. "he didn't leave in his machine; I distinctly heard the mistress say he left in a huff!"—London Answers.

Accounted For.

"How is it so many people seem able to get the money to buy automobiles with?"

"If you only notice, they are the easiest things in the world with which to raise the dust."

What is your idea of a perfect husband?"

"One with about a million, who would lose no time in making me a merry widow."

Many have smoked LEWIS' Single Binder cigar for the past fifteen years. Always found it reliable quality.

A woman can't feed a man so much stuffy that it will spoil his appetite for it.

CURES BURNS AND CUTS.

Cole's Carbolic Salve stops the pain instantly. Cures quick. No scar. All druggists. 25c and 50c.

Your discretion might look like cowardice in another.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

It's easier to catch a husband than to uncatch him.

BUT HE WAS WRONG.

"Did you fool anybody?"

"Yep. I fooled myself into thinkin' I could fool pa!"

Got His Answer.

When Oscar Wilde came to the United States to lecture on aesthetics in his highly aesthetic velvet costume—and incidentally to prepare the public mind for the proper appreciation of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Patience," in which the aesthetic movement was held up to ridicule—he used to complain that America was very uninteresting since it had "no antiquities and no curiosities." But he ventured on this disparagement once too often, for in the course of his travels he uttered it to the American Girl, and she replied with the demure depravity of candid innocent that this was not quite a fair reproach, since "we shall have the antiquities in time, and we are already importing the curiosities."

Ideals.

The Paxton Toilet Co. of Boston, Mass., will send a large trial box of Paxtine Antiseptic, a delightful cleansing and germicidal toilet preparation, to any woman, free, upon request.

Its Rank.

"Do you think telephone operation can be classed as a profession?"

"Well, it certainly is a calling."

Many have smoked LEWIS' Single Binder cigar for the past fifteen years. Always found it reliable quality.

A woman can't feed a man so much stuffy that it will spoil his appetite for it.

CURES BURNS AND CUTS.

Cole's Carbolic Salve stops the pain instantly. Cures quick. No scar. All druggists. 25c and 50c.

Your discretion might look like cowardice in another.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

It's easier to catch a husband than to uncatch him.

MOTHER OF LARGE FAMILY

Tells How She Keeps Her Health—Happiness For Those Who Take Her Advice.

Scottville, Mich.—"I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done me. I live on a farm and have worked very hard. I am forty-five years old, and am the mother of thirteen children. Many people think it strange that I am not broken down with hard work and the care of my family, but I tell them of my good friend, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and that there will be no backache and bearing down pains for them if they will take it as I have. I am scarcely ever without it in the house."

"I will say also that I think there is no better medicine to be found for young girls. My eldest daughter has taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for painful periods and irregularity, and it has helped her."

"I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tell every one I meet that I owe my health and happiness to your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. J. G. JOHNSON, Scottville, Mich., R.F.D. 2.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy for woman's ills known.

Resinol samples mailed free

Your druggist sells and recommends Resinol Soap (5c) and Resinol Ointment (60c), but for generous sample of each, free, write to Dept. 11K, Resinol Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

Legs raw with itching, burning eczema

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 23, 1912.—"A friend of mine had big red blotches form all over his legs, body and arms. It was pronounced a very bad case of eczema. After two months' treatment he was suffering untold tortures, and would awake at night and find himself scratching, with hands all over blood. His legs were like a piece of raw meat, itching and burning. For two months he slept scarcely any, but would get up and walk the floor. He says he simply felt as if he were burning up. After the case had lasted six months he began the use of Resinol Soap and Ointment. He was cured, and his skin was as clear as crystal." (Signed) W. D. BUCHANAN, 903 Deely St.

Resinol samples mailed free

Your druggist sells and recommends Resinol Soap (5c) and Resinol Ointment (60c), but for generous sample of each, free, write to Dept. 11K, Resinol Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

900 DROPS

CASTORIA

ALCOHOL 3 PER CENT.

Vegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food and Regulating the Stomachs and Bowels of

INFANTS & CHILDREN

Promotes Digestion, Cheerfulness and Rest. Contains neither Opium, Morphine nor Mineral. NOT NARCOTIC.

Recipe of Old Dr. J. C. FLETCHER

Pinkish Seed—
Almonds—
Rhubarb Sals—
Anise Seed—
Peppermint—
St. Catharine's Oil—
Verm. Seed—
Clarified Sugar—
Whitening Flavour.

A perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and Loss of Sleep.

Facsimile Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher
NEW YORK.

At 6 months old
35 DROPS—35 CENTS

Guaranteed under the Food Act

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

Is Your Money Earning Less Than 10%?

Would you consider a proposition like the following, if we could prove it to you?

INVEST $200

You Get	Earning Power of Investment:
Stock to the value of . . . . . $200.00	Dividend on Stock . . . . . $16.00
And a 5% First Mortgage Bond . . . . . 100.00	Interest on bond . . . . . 5.00
Total value of your investment $300.00	Total earning power . . . . . $21.00

We would like to place full particulars in your possession, including the names of some of those who own stock.

We have a desirable opening in this vicinity for a live representative of good social or business connections.

DODGE & COMPANY, 1511 Fort Dearborn Bldg., Chicago, Illinois

OLD SORES CURED

Allen's Ointment Cures Chronic Ulcers, Bone Ulcers, Scrofulous Ulcers, Varicose Ulcers, Indolent Ulcers, Mercurial Ulcers, White Swelling, Milk Leg, Fever Sores, old sores. By mail 15c. Booklet free. J. F. ALLEN, Dept. A1, St. Paul, Minn.

DEFIANCE STARCH—10 ounces to the package—other starches only 12 ounces—same price and "DEFIANCE" is SUPERIOR QUALITY.

$40 a Week for hostlers to give away our 24-piece Kitchen Cabinet Collection. Now plain, exclusive contest. Write for sample Free. B. C. WILSON MFG. CO., Lancaster, Pa.

W. N. U., CHICAGO, CO. 34-1912

The POOL of FLAME

by LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

ILLUSTRATIONS BY ELLSWORTH YOUNG

COPYRIGHT 1909 by LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

SYNOPSIS.

The story opens at Monte Carlo with Col. Terence O'Rourke, a military officer, and his wife, Mrs. O'Rourke, who is a beautiful girl who suddenly enters the elevator and goes from sight. At the gaming table O'Rourke notices two men watching him. One is the Hon. Bertie Des Trebes, a quondam viscount, and the other is a French government agent named O'Rourke, who is a man who would undertake a secret mission. At his apartment, O'Rourke finds a mysterious letter. The viscount arrives, hands a sealed package to O'Rourke, who is not to open it until on the ocean. A pair of dainty slippers are seen protruding from under a doorway curtain. The Irishman finds the owner of the mysterious foot to be his wife, Bertha, from whom he had run away a year previous. They are reconciled, and opening the letter he finds that a Rangoon law firm offers him 200,000 pounds for a jewel known as the Pool of Flame and left to him by a dying friend, but now in keeping of a Frenchman named Des Trebes, who has stolen the jewel. O'Rourke makes a mysterious appointment with Des Trebes, who tells him that he has gained possession of the jewel by stealing it. In a duel O'Rourke masters the viscount, secures possession of the Pool of Flame, and starts by ship for Rangoon. He finds the captain to be a smuggler who tries to steal the jewel. It is finally secured by the captain and O'Rourke escapes to land. With the aid of one Danny and his sweetheart, O'Rourke recovers the Pool of Flame and escapes more money bound for Rangoon, at mysterious lady appears. O'Rourke comes upon a lasciar about to attack the lady, who is Mrs. Pryne, and kills the man into the sea. Mrs. Pryne claims she is en route for Indiana on a mission for the king. O'Rourke is attacked by the lasciar, who secures the Pool of Flame, the captain is shot and the lasciar jumps into the sea. The ship arrives in port. Danny hands O'Rourke the Pool of Flame which he has stolen from Mrs. Pryne. It is the real jewel, the one lost at sea being a counterfeit. O'Rourke goes to Calcutta and discovers Des Trebes disguised. He now knows that Mrs. Pryne was an accomplice. Finally he gets to the lawyer who has offered the reward, delivers the jewel and gets the money.

CHAPTER XXX.—(Continued.)

Sypher had very explicitly named his dinner hour, after the formal English fashion, nowhere and by nobody more rigidly observed than by the Englishman in the Orient; "eight for eight-thirty," he had said. And as O'Rourke, a very dignified and imposing O'Rourke in his evening dress, waited for a sampan on the lower grating of the Poonah's passenger gangplank he had a round three-quarters for an hour for leeway—ample leisure for an interested inspection of that part of Rangoon lying between the floating jetty and Sypher's residence in a suburb near Dalhousie Park.

Danny remained aboard ship only temporarily, being instructed to follow with O'Rourke's belongings to suitable accommodations already engaged at a hotel on the Strand, overlooking the roadstead; from whose windows O'Rourke was promising himself the pleasure of watching the arrival of the steamship bearing his wife to his arms.

"Bless her dear face!" said he softly. "Tis herself will be desolated if she's not aboard that Messageries boat due tomorrow—now that I can go back to her, a man of property, no longer a pauper ne'er-do-well! Think of that, ye lucky dog!"

A sampan slid noiselessly in beside the grating. O'Rourke let himself cautiously into it and incontinently collapsed upon the rear seat as the boat slid away toward the shore lights, yielding to the vigorous sweeps of the single long oar wielded by the Burman in the bows.

Ashore, a tikkaharry caught him up and bore him down the silent road that winds between the Strand and the river's edge, then whipped into Mogul street, where the fluent tide of life ran broad and deep beneath a glare of light.

All too quickly the tikkaharry whisked out of the main channel of the city's life, out beyond the Mohammedan mosque and the Chetti's hall and the Christian chapel, and into the soft, dense night of the countryside—a world of darkness sparsely studded with dim, glowing windows; and all too soon, again, it swung off from the highway into a private drive, crunched over gravel and stopped before the illuminated veranda of a native bungalow.

O'Rourke got down, discharged the driver and ascended the steps, a little puzzled to find no one waiting to welcome him, whether Sypher, Miss Pynsent, or at worst a servant. Surely he was expected. . . . But nobody appeared. The grating tires of the departing tikkaharry had made noise enough to apprise the household of the arrival of a guest, one would think. Nevertheless O'Rourke remained ungreeted.

He stroked his chin, perplexed, wondering if by mischance the native driver had brought him to the wrong bungalow. But it was now too late to call him back and make sure. And this veranda, still and empty as it was, softly lighted by lanterns dependent from its roof, was to him a small oasis in a world of darkness. Without advice he was lost, could find his way no other where. He would have simply to wait until the household came to life, or until by his own efforts he succeeded in quickening it.

He tried to do this latter to the best of his ability by tapping a summons on the door-jamb. Through the wire insect-screens a broad hallway and a staircase rising to the upper floor were visible. Limp, cool-looking rugs conceived in pleasing color-schemes protected the hardwood flooring. To the right a door stood ajar and permitted a broad shaft of light to escape from the room beyond. On the other hand a similar door, likewise open, showed a dimmer glow. Two other doors were closed; O'Rourke assumed that they led to the kitchen offices.

Having waited a few moments without event, the Irishman knocked a second time, and would have knocked a third when he thought better of it and glanced at his watch. It was only a matter of ten minutes after eight, strictly interpreting the intent of Sypher's invitation, he was a trifle early. Presumably the servants were all out of earshot, preoccupied with preparations for the meal; while Sypher and his niece were most probably still dressing.

With an impatient air O'Rourke turned back to the veranda. A hammock in one corner was swinging idly in the breeze. A number of wicker armchairs stood about, invitingly furnished with cushions. O'Rourke selected one and disposed himself to wait.

After five minutes he frowned thoughtfully and lit a cigarette.

"Faith, 'tis a fine surprise he's given me," he said, irresolute. "But it can't be premeditated insult. Why should it be? And they can't all be out. 'Tis sorry I am I let that driver go; more than likely this will be the wrong house entirely. That must be the trouble. I'll just go, quietly fold up me tent and decamp before the inhabitants, if any there be, discover me and run me off the premises."

But at the head of the steps, with foot poised to descend, something restrained him; it would be difficult to say what, unless it were the unbroken, steadfast, uncanny quiet. "I'll have a look," he determined suddenly; "perhaps."

He turned to the right and stopped before a long, open window, looking into what seemed to be a music room and library combined. Brilliantly illuminated by hanging lamps of unusual brilliancy, the interior was clearly revealed. And with an abrupt exclamation the adventurer entered, feeling for the revolver, to carry which had of late become habitual with him.

The room was simply furnished, if tastefully. There was a grand piano near the veranda windows with a music rack and cabinet near by. Dispersed about the floor were a few comfortable chairs, a rug of rare Oriental texture, two consoles adorned with valuable porcelains. In the middle of the room stood a draped center-table littered with books and magazines; toward the back a long, flat-topped desk. And against the rear wall, ordinarily hidden by a folding screen of Japanese manufacture, now swept aside, was a small steel safe. Upon this O'Rourke's attention was centered.

He remarked that it looked new and very strong; it was open, disclosing a variety of pigeonholes more or less occupied by docketed documents, and a smaller interior strong-box.

Between the desk and the safe a man lay prone and quite motionless. He was dressed for a ceremonious dinner, and apparently had been struck down in the act of stepping from his desk to the safe. For beyond all doubt he had been murdered. The haft of a knife protruded from his back, buried to its hilt just beneath his left shoulder-blade.

O'Rourke moved over to the body and lifted it by the shoulders, turning the face to the light. Then, with a low oath, he dropped it.

A small sound, so slight as to be all but indistinguishable, penetrated O'Rourke's stupefaction. He stood erect, looking about, telling himself that the noise resembled as much as anything the hushed cry of a child sobbing in sleep, soft and infinitely pathetic. Unable to assign its source elsewhere, he attributed it to the stricken man at his feet; and in a desperate hope that the pulse of life might still linger in Sypher's body, he knelt, withdrew the knife, turned the corpse upon its back, and laid his ear to its breast, above the heart. Beyond dispute, Sypher was dead. "Poor divvie!" muttered the Irishman. . . . "The Pool of Flame!"

CHAPTER XXXII.

For several minutes O'Rourke remained beside the body, making two notable discoveries. For he was quick to note the fact that one of the dead man's hands was tightly clenched, while the other lay half-open and limp. The former was closed upon a leather thong so stout as to resist any attempt to break it by main strength, so firmly held that the murderer had found it necessary to sever it with a knife. The knife itself was there, for proof of this; the sheen of light upon its mother-of-pearl handle caught the Irishman's eye.

Picking it up, he subjected it to a close examination that, however, gleaned no information. It was simply a small pocket penknife, little worn, with blades of German steel. It carried no identifying marks and told him but one thing—that the assassin had been a European; a native would never have bothered with so ineffectual a thing when a sturdy weapon, serviceable alike for offense and defense, would have served its purpose equally well.

From this he turned to the dagger which he had taken from the body; a stilette with a plain ebony handle, unmarked, unscratched, apparently fresh from the dealer's showcase. It meant nothing, save that it indicated face. "And poor, poor young woman!"

He was startled by the thought of her; for the first time it entered into his comprehension, until then bounded by the hard and fast fact of the murder. Now instantly his concern about the crime was resolved into solicitude for the girl. What could have happened to her? What had become of the servants, whose sudden desertion had left the house so sinisterly quiet?

Swept on by a fervor of anxiety on the girl's behalf, O'Rourke glanced quickly about the study to assure himself that he had overlooked nothing of importance, then passed out into the main hall or reception-room. Here the most searching inspection revealed nothing amiss. He moved on to the other room on the main floor and found himself in the dining-room; here again all was in perfect order.

The kitchen offices in the rear of the house next received his attention; he found them completely untenanted, having apparently been abandoned in desperate haste. Everything was in disorder; the meal he had been invited to partake of was cooking to cinders in pots and ovens; a heavy offense of burning food thickened the atmosphere. Half-stiffed, he left the place as quickly as possible, returned to the main hall and ascended to the upper story.

Here he found three bed-chambers and a bath. He first entered Sypher's, then the room evidently occupied by Miss Pynsent, finally what was unquestionably a guest-chamber, discovering nothing noteworthy until he reached the latter. And here he re-its dainty pocket it boasted an distinguishing mark.

He stumbled hurriedly from the room and down the stairs, returning to the study where Sypher's body lay; tortured by mounting fears, he stood and looked blankly about him, at a loss where next to turn, if almost preternaturally alive to every sound or sight that might afford him a clue.

He fought against a suspicion that crawled like a viper in his brain. Had he, after all, been deceived in Sypher's niece, Miss Pynsent? Had that innocent charm of hers been a thing assumed, a cloak for criminal duplicity? Had she in reality been Des Trebes' accomplice? Had those clear and limpid eyes of youth, all through that voyage been looking forward to such a scene, to such a tragic ending as this? Could she have afforded the Frenchman the aid he needed to consummate his chosen crime?

For he was now ready to believe Des Trebes the prime mover in this terrible affair; he no longer entertained a shred of doubt that his enemy had traveled with him from Calcutta under the disguise of "De Hyeres." And he believed the man had planned this thing far ahead; else would he have surely taken some overt step to prevent O'Rourke from delivering the ruby to Sypher. He divined acutely that, despairing of any further attempt to win the jewel from him, Des Trebes had turned his wits to the task of stealing it from Sypher; somebody naturally much less to be feared than the adventurer.

But on the other hand, if the girl had not been Des Trebes' assistant—what had become of her? And what of her guest—the lady one of whose initials was B?

It was not inconsistent with Des Trebes' whole-hearted villainy that he should employ a gang of thugs sufficiently large to overpower and make away with bodily and in a body Miss Pynsent, her guest and the servants. "Great God!" cried O'Rourke, "if it be in truth my wife—"

Without presage a thin but imperative untimeliness broke upon the silence of the house of death. O'Rourke jumped as if shot. Somewhere in one of the other rooms a telephone bell was ringing. It ceased, leaving a strident stillness; but before he could move to find the instrument and answer the call, there rose a second time that moaning sob which first he had attributed to an impossible source, then, in the turmoil of his thoughts, had forgotten.

He waited, listening intently. The telephone called again and again subsided. Then a third time he heard the groan, more faint than before, but sufficiently loud to suggest its source. He moved warily toward the windows and out upon the veranda—bounced by the telephone. But that would have to wait; here was a more urgent matter to his hand. Between the long, insistent rings the moaning was again audible; and this time he located it accurately. It came from the lawn, near the edge of the veranda. He stepped off carefully, but almost stumbled over the body of a man who lay there, huddled and moaning.

"And another!" whispered the adventurer, averted. "Faith, this Pool of Flame . . ."

He was at once completely horrified and utterly dumfounded. Nothing he had come upon within the bungalow seemed to indicate that there had been anything in the nature of a struggle prior to the assassination of Sypher. He had up to this moment considered it nothing but a cold-blooded and cowardly murder; the man had apparently been struck down from behind in total ignorance of his danger. O'Rourke had deduced that Sypher had risen from the desk to put the jewel in his safe; and that while he was so engaged the assassin, till then skulking outside the long windows and waiting for a moment when his victim's back should be turned, had entered and struck. . . . But how could he reconcile that hypothesis with this man who lay weltering and at the point of death at the veranda edge?

Indeed, he could not do so. But this victim, at least, was not yet dead; if he had strength to moan, he might yet be revived, at least temporarily.

Without delay, then, the Irishman grasped the man beneath the armpits, and, lifting him bodily to the veranda, dragged him into the library. Not until he placed him in the middle of the floor, beneath the glare of the lamp-light, did O'Rourke have an opportunity to observe his features. But now as he dropped to his knees beside the body, his wondering cry testified to immediate recognition.

The latest name to be inscribed on the long and blood-stained death-roll of the Pool of Flame was that of Paul Maurice, Vicomte des Trebes; or, if there were life enough left in the man to enable him to insist upon his nom de guerre (the wanderer reflected grimly) Raoul de Hyeres.

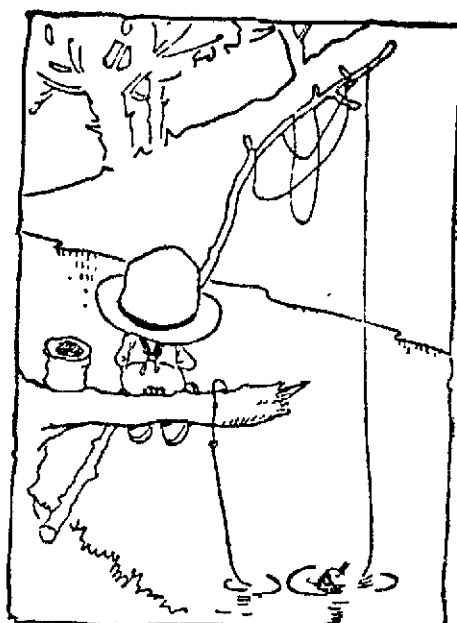

"What next?" wondered O'Rourke. "What can the meaning of it all be now?"

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Masterpiece of Advertising.

A physician of Montpellier, France, was in the habit of employing a very ingenious artifice. When he came to a town where he was not known, he pretended to have lost his dog, and ordered the public crier to offer, with beat of drum, a reward of 25 lous to whomsoever should bring it to him. The crier took care to mention all the titles and academic honors of the doctor, as well as his place of residence. He soon became the talk of the town. "Do you know," says one, "that a famous physician has come here, a very clever fellow? He must be very rich, for he offers 25 lous for finding his dog." The dog was not found, but patients were.

SMALL WONDER.

The Fisherman—Doggone it, I've sit here for an hour and ain't even got a bite yet.

Took Slot Machine at Its Word.

A Kansas City woman recently took her two small daughters to make their first visit to her husband's people, living in a small Kansas town. Naturally she was anxious to make as favorable an impression as possible. So the two little people, on going on an errand to the depot, were cautioned to be on their very best behavior. To the mother's surprise, they returned vigorously chewing gum. As they had no money, she asked them where they got it.

"Oh," explained the older one, "it said on the slot machine, 'Ask the agent for pennies,' so we did."

Autocratic Assertions.

"Are you a servant of the people?" asked the constituent.

"Yes," replied Senator Sorghum. "Only it should be observed that a really first-class servant may come pretty nearly being a boss."

There are lots of funny things to be seen in this world, and among them is a fat woman sitting on a little piano stool.

Whittemore's Shoe Polishes

Finest Quality Largest Variety

"GILT EDGE," the only India shoe dressing that positively contains OIL. Blacks and Polishes ladies' and children's boots and shoes, shines without rubbing, 25c. "French Gloss," 10c. "STAR" combination for cleaning and polishing all kinds of russet or tan shoes, 10c. "Dandy" size 5c. "QUICKWHITE" (in liquid form with sponge) quickly cleans and whitens dirty canvas shoes, 10c and 25c. "ALBO" cleans and whitens canvas shoes. In round white cakes packed in zinc-lined boxes, with sponge, 10c. In handsome large aluminum boxes, with sponge, 25c. If your dealer does not keep the kind you want send us the price in stamps for a full size package, charges paid.

WHITEMORE BROS. & CO.
20-26 Albany St., Cambridge, Mass.
The Oldest and Largest Manufacturers of Shoe Polishes in the World.

The Army of Constipation

Is Growing Smaller Every Day. CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are responsible. They not only give relief—they permanently cure Constipation. Millions use them for Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Sallow Skin. SMALL PILL, SMALL DOSE, SMALL PRICE. Genuine must bear Signature.

Brent Wood

USE ABSORBINE, JR. LINIMENT Swollen Varicose Veins, Painful, Knotted, Tortuous, Ulcerated, Ruptured, Bad Legs, Milk Leg, Thrombosis, Elephantiasis. It takes out the inflammation, soreness and discoloration; relieves the pain and tiredness; reduces the swelling, gradually restoring part to normal strength and appearance. ABSORBINE, JR., is a mild, safe, pleasant antiseptic liniment, healing and soothing. Severe cases where veins have ulcerated and broken have been completely and permanently cured. First few applications of ABSORBINE, JR., will give relief and prove its merit. $1.00 and $2.00 per bottle at druggists or delivered. Detailed directions, reports on recent cases and Book 6 G free on request. W.F. Young, P.O. 310 Temple St., Springfield, Mass.

REAL ESTATE

For Sale. B. Owner, 100 acre improved farm, 1/2 mi. from Hammond, Ind. Call on J. B. HAMMOND, David, Mitchell Co., Ind.

FOR SALE. Choice Stock and Dairy Farm, Carroll Co., Illinois. Well drained bottom land, deep black soil, 100 acre farm home. Write for particulars. Frank H. Dunston, Omer, Des Moines, Iowa.

SOUTH GEORGIA

I would like to tell you something about the best section of the country and the best town in South Georgia. Many Northern and Western people live here. If you want a factory, a home, a farm or just a home with a few acres of land, I have nothing to sell but want good citizens to come here to live and be happy. A. B. COOK, Mayor of Fitzgerald, Ga., Pres. of Nat'l Bank.